Mr Willi Haman

September 26, 1972

Dear Willi,

You did a superb job of organizing the 'Weltbestenkämpfe der über 40jährigen in Bensberg-Refrath'. It is a pity that it was marred by the error in the printing and publishing the results of the Marathon for the over 60 class. Considering the vast amount of information that had to be assembled on the short time available, it is understandable that the list of the first 25 in the marathon could have been missed. It is difficult to understand, however, why the false information was released to the newspapers. The error was discovered about 9:30 p.m. and should have been corrected immediately. It is even more difficult to understand why the corrected and revised lists have not yet been mailed to the disappointed participants. You will remember that at your suggestion Sam Lee and I came back to the Bensberg-Refrath club Sunday morning to get the corrected lists and you told us then that they would be mailed on Monday. Not having received them by Thursday, I visited the club again and was told that you were on vacation but that the corrected lists were being mailed by your son. They still have not arrived.

You will recall that I did not receive a medal when I finished the race and received one only after I spoke to you about it on Sunday morning. This again was a result of a human error and I can understand how this could happen. I do not agree, however, with your policy of giving bronze medals to the first two participants as well as all others finishing the race. The worldwide movement to encourage veteran participation is based on competition within the classes of 40-49, 50-59, 60-69, 70 and older. To give gold and silver medals to only the first two overall winners is contrary to this concept. Obviously, the winners always will be in the 40-49 age group. A continuation of this policy will soon discourage participation by older men. I strongly urge that you reconsider and award gold and silver medals to the first two winners in each class.

Too often preference is shown in the number and quality of awards to the first class compared to the second, third and fourth. There should be no distinction. Although the time for men over 50 year old will be slower than that of the winners of the 40 to 49 yearold groups the same recognition should be given to winning performance. Some meet organizers argue that there are more participants in the younger groups and, therefore, the prizes should be of greater value in these groups. Perhaps there should be more prizes given in the younger groups in proportion to the number of participants but the size or quality of the awards...
Dear Mr. Witten,

I received your letter dated September 26th, 1975, and I wish to respond to your concerns about the results of the marathon race. You mentioned that you had trouble understanding why the selected participants were not the same as those who finished in the top positions. Let me explain why this occurred.

The marathon was designed to assess the physical fitness of the participants. The selection criteria were based on age, gender, and physical condition. The top finishers were selected based on their ability to complete the race within the specified time limit. The participants in the top positions were not necessarily the ones who received bronze medals. The bronze medals were awarded to participants who successfully completed the race in any category.

I understand your frustration, and I assure you that we are committed to improving the selection process. We will ensure that the participants are selected based on a fair and transparent criteria. I appreciate your feedback and will take appropriate measures to address your concerns.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Mr. Witten
With regard to the presentations of awards and certificates I suggest that consideration be given to the following procedure:
The winners and those participants receiving special awards in each class should be presented with their medals and awards first. Then the presentation of certificates should follow with presentations to the older classes first.

I hope that you will understand that my criticism is meant to be constructive. I think that you have done a wonderful job in organizing and encouraging veteran participation in Leichtathletiks and I know the frustration and tremendous amount of work that you have experienced. All veteran runners are indebted to you for what you have done and most of them are deeply grateful. I hope you enjoyed your vacation and have had a good rest following the months of hard work in preparation of the meet.

Sincerely,
URBAN MILLER

Dear Urban,

You are correct. The trip home was long and arduous. Seven airports represent quite a few "ups and downs," and with a miserable cold... the pressures were something else. Actually I was speechless for about a week... but then I really didn't want to talk to anyone anyway. I would have enjoyed an isolation booth for about seven days.

David existed through an extension of his trip to Toronto and seemed quite pleased with his contacts there. Don Farquharson is a very special person and an excellent host. Now David is working around the clock trying to catch up on correspondence concerning the trip, practicing law, and organizing the San Diego Indoor Games, scheduled for February 17th. This is the second year for this MAJOR undertaking for the San Diego Track Club... and he is determined that it will be a financial success this time.

In addition to these projects we are working on the address list (for those who participated in the tour), the newsletter, and investigating the pertinent facts concerning the '73 Christmas tour to the South Pacific... which we are definitely going ahead with. We feel that we have learned so much with this last experience that these two-plus-weeks should be nothing short of fantastic.

We are making note that you and Betty will be with us for that exciting jaunt. We will begin asking for firm commitments by the beginning of the new year.

Now as for you and ALL of your work this past year on the tremendous activities in Koln... there is no way that we can begin to thank you sufficiently nor compensate you for your time and effort. However, the least we can do is to enclose the check for postage for out-of-pocket expenditures and to say that, of course, you owe us nothing more. Just know that we are eternally grateful for everything you did for us and for the U. S. Masters. And when you come to California this next year, we hope you will be our guests in La Jolla.

Looking forward to visiting with you under more relaxed circumstances....

Love and best wishes,

HELEN MILLER
NEWS RELEASE

The International Sports Arena will be transformed into a "Christmas Around the World" Fantasyland on Monday, December 21, 1981, for THE CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS FANTASY, produced and directed by Moul Appel as a benefit for the Arthritis Foundation of San Diego. Headlining the two-hour long spectacular (two performances, beginning at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.), will be Frankie Laine, giving the Christmas message, and Bat'ya, presenting the salute to Hanukkah.

Opening the overture, "The Christmas Festival" a giant parade with the Helix Corps Band, floats, the Monte Vista High School Marching Band, who will represent San Diego in the Tournament of Roses Parade, the Starlighters Drill Team, the Parade of Flags, and Santa Claus sled will circle the ice-covered arena floor on a specially made perimeter ramp.

Peter Pan, in the form of Anthony Juliano, principle dancer with the Viand Carr Show, will be on hand to visit the children.

In the center of the ice on a magnificent stage constructed to resemble Christmas packages, the program of the Christmas medley will begin. While soloists, Al Gossal, Manci Hunter, Joyce Jones and Jamison Gill sing favorite holiday tunes, the skaters, through the courtesy of the Mission Valley Ice Rink, led by Marilyn Cooper, Janet Champion and Bruce Jarwin will perform on the colored ice.
The enclosed medal belongs to Wilton Wallace. All other medals and certificates were apparently destroyed by fire.

Dear Helen and David,

I delayed in writing to you until I received the correctly stated lists for the marathon at Berlin. Will Imai left for a three weeks vacation the day after you left and I had the diaries of a time getting the correct information from his son. I am also enclosing some of the articles that occurred in the German press as well as a stupid article that appeared in the Herald Tribune published in Paris.

By the time this letter is ready to be mailed, I hope you have recovered from your long and arduous trip. As you know we have some additional programs left over. If you would like to settle up with you also and I would appreciate it if you would send me an account of what I still owe you.
