Ken Sparks, age 46, of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, was second master in WZYP Rocket City Marathon (2:35:54), Huntsville, Ala., December 14.
Elaine Geyer, Daytona Shores, Fla., in the Full Moon Frolic 4 Mile, DeLand, Fla.

Photo by John Boyle
Bannister-Landy Statue, outside Empire Stadium track, Vancouver, B.C., Canada, dedicated to the first sub-four minute mile, May 1954.

Photo by Bert Morrow
Jane Hutchison (153), Nancy Mieszczak (115), and Nancy Grayson (176) at starting line gave the 1991 WZYP Rocket City Marathon a strong female masters field, Huntsville, Ala., December 14.

WZPY Rocket City Marathon, 1991 Photo by Jim Oaks
First W70 Margaret Lee (5:34:58), Honolulu Marathon, Honolulu, HI, Dec. 15.

Photo by Tess Teshima
Arlene Spiegel, of Ho Ho Ho Jingle Bells 5K sponsor Dr. B. Well Naturally, Long Island heath food supermarket, congratulates M45 leaders (l to r) Maury Dean (1st, 17:12), Jorge Aguilera, and Bob Pike.

The event, December 21, was conducted by the Plainview-Old Bethpage RRC, Long Island's largest running club.

Photo by Mike Polansky
Max Goldsmith (l), Site Selection Coordinator, Hubert Cobb (c), West Regional Coordinator, and Phil Mulkey, Southeast Regional Co-Coordinator, at the Masters T&F Committee Meeting, TAC Convention, New Orleans. Photo by Jerry Wojcik.
Larry Boots (328), Garry Elkins (193), James Foreman (246), Dean Godwin (178) and Ray Giles (234) were the only starters who had run all 14 previous Rocket City Marathons. They all completed the race to make it 15 for 15.

WZPY Rocket City Marathon, 1991 Photo by Jim Oaks
Jane Hutchison, 45, Webb City, Mo., winning her third master title (2:51:42), Rocket City Marathon, Huntsville, Ala., December 14. She also won in 1988 and 1990.

Photo by Jim Oaks
Charles Hirshey, 78, Charleston, S.C., competed in 26 meets in 1991. A retired educator after 50 years, Hirshey attributes his athletic success to his Finnish heritage, which he says "blesses me with good health and a big heart." His brother, Fred Hirsimaki, 66, Findlay, Ohio, also competes with much success.
Barney Klecker, 40, Minnetonka, Minn., on his way to Benji Durden, 40, of Boulder, Colo., Rocket City Marathon masters first (2:32:47), Huntsville, Ala., December 14.

Photo by Charlie Scott, Huntsville News

Photo by Mike Tymn
Thirty-six years ago, Hungary's Laszlo Tabori set middle-distance records in Turku. This year, two of his San Ferando Valley TC pupils competed there at the WAVP Championships: Jacqueline Hansen (4th in the W40 1500) and Chick Dahlsten (three silver medals in the M80 1500, 5000, and 10,000).
Here, Herb Kirk, U.S., M95 leads Paul Spangler, U.S., M90, in the mixed age-group 800 finals, IX WAVA Championships, Turku, Finland, July 18-28, but Spangler ran 5:21.91, placing second, and Kirk, the only M95 entrant, ran 6:02.94.

Photo by Christine Guy
U.S. Navy officers and training partners, Steve Littleton, 36, overall winner (32:33), and Ken MacDowell, 41, masters first (35:54), Castle Medical Center 10K, Kailua, Hawaii, July. Photo by Barb Littleton
Dave Connolly (50) of the Garden State Athletic Club going for a PR at the Garden State AC Club Championships in Randolph, N.J., on June 30, 1981.
Audrey Williams, 57, 1500 winner (6:47),
St. Louis Senior Olympics, May 28
Photo by Hank Kiesel
Joy Margerum, winning the W3O 100mH (15.50), Club West Meet, Santa Barbara, Calif., October 19. Photo by Jerry Wojcik.
Larry White of Hampton, Va., first master (55:42), Waterman's Museum 10 Mile, Yorktown, Va.,

Date: November 17,

Photo by Bronwyn Robertson
New York resident Wen-Shu Yu at age 57 ran 3:21:37 to take $250 prize money as the 6th fastest female master.

Rocket City Marathon.

Photo by Jill Oaks.
Don Murray, TV and film actor, checks out first curve in the 800, Club West Meet, Santa Barbara, Calif. October 19. Murray finished second in the M60 race with a 2:57.1.

Photo by Jerry Wojcik
Lloyd Higgins, shown here at the Club West Meet, recently turned 50 on October 31 and has his sights on records in the discus and hammer.

Photo by Jerry Wojcik
Ken Weinbel, 63, Seattle, Wash., National Masters Weight Pentathlon Championships in Louisiana.

August 24.

Photo by Dan Thiel
Derek Redmore, 53, of St. Louis, first M50 in 3:02:39, St. Louis Marathon, November 24.

Photo by Hank Kiesel
Texan Tom Thompson, winning the 200 (23.14), 1991 Indoor Championships, Blaine, Minn. This year's championships will be held in Columbus, Ohio, April 3-5. See last page for entry information.

Photo by Bob Watanabe

MUST USE FEBRUARY