Al,

Here is my column for the January issue. I’m also enclosing three photos. The head shot of myself is to use in place of the head shot you usually use in the banner if it is not that much of a problem changing it for one issue. If it is a problem, forget it.
CLUB WEST president GORDON McCLENAFTHEN (r) pictured presenting the High Point Field trophy to winner TED HATLEN at a recent Club West monthly meeting. Hatlen, of Santa Barbara, won the award after compiling points scored while competing at Club West's annual masters' meet last October 8 in Santa Barbara. He won the M 80 Javelin (13.63) as well as being second in both the M 80 Discus (19.72) and M 80 Shot Put (7.57).
