

E, three-time Olympian, E
Craig Virgin, finishing the WZYP Cotton Row
10K in 34:08, Huntsville, Ala., May 27.

1-col

90%

Photo by Jim Oaks

160%

160%

David Geer #2002, M40, and Antoni Niemczak, WZYP
M40, in the Cotton Row 10K, Huntsville, Ala.,
May 27. Niemczak was the masters winner by three seconds over Geer, ~~with a~~ⁱⁿ 33:10, in a heat-slowed race.

Photo by Jim Oaks

From left: Althea Wetherbee; Adrienne Salmini, maker of quilt which consists of fabric photos from her races over the years; Althea Jureidini.
Photo by Marilyn Mitchell

View from windows of headquarters hotel, Durban, South Africa.

Photo by Rex Harvey

At the Advil Mini-Marathon, from left: Joyce Chepchumba (KEN, 2nd overall), Althea Jureidini (78, 2nd in 75+ age group), Tegla Loroupe (KEN, 1st overall), Allan Steinfeld, Chairman, New York Road Runners.

Photo by Marilyn Mitchell

Members of the Durban Organizing Committee meet with members of the WAVA Stadia Committee in Durban, South Africa, Feb. 1996. From left: Willie Ward, Peter Grober (OC), Basil Carnie (OC), Winston Thomas (S), Jim Blair (S), Monty Hacker (OC), Rex Harvey (S).

Photo by Leo Benning

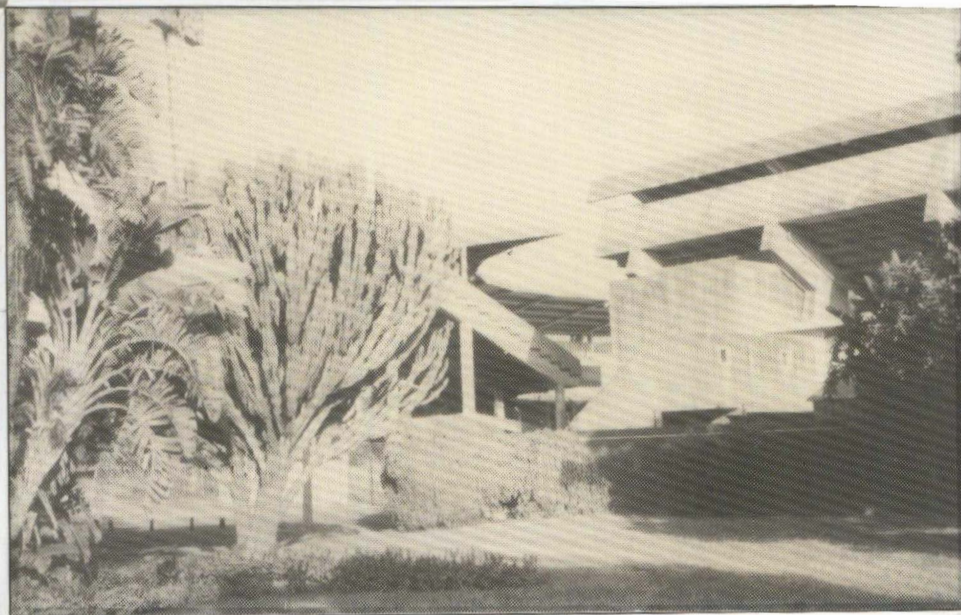

Edith Mendyka taking the baton at a meet in Berlin, Germany in 1934.

Steve Winkel, 38, receives a gift certificate from Birmingham TC president Helen Tankersley as winner of the Jim Law Memorial 400m Award for the best age-graded performance, Birmingham TC Meet, Alabama, May 18. Tom Brewer, 50, was second, and Meet Director Gordon Seifert (I), 67, third.

Photo by Richard Tankersley

Exterior of Stadium 1 showing tropical vegetation, Durban, South Africa.

Photo by Rex Harvey

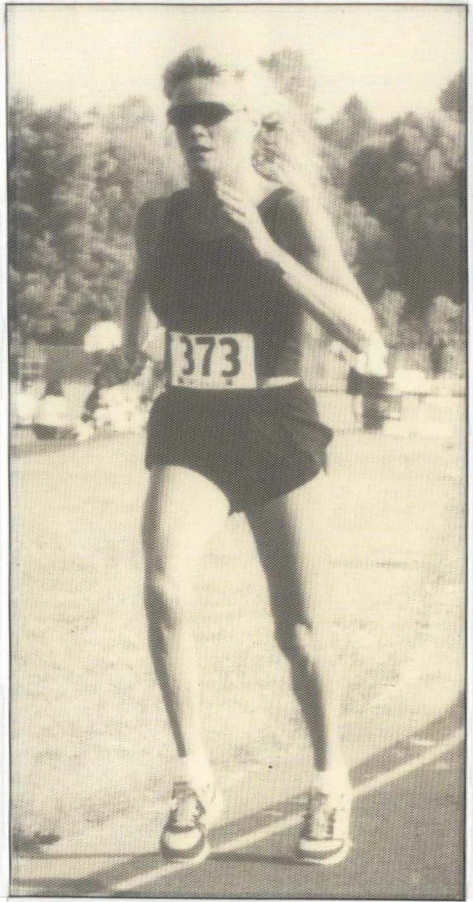

New York City Mayor Hylan pins a special medal on Aileen Riggin at the victory celebration following the 1920 Olympic Games. Helen Wainwright (silver) waits in line, followed by Helen Moody (gold medal winner in the '28 Olympics).

Joan Ottaway, 52, finishes The Pacific Sun 10K on Memorial Day, easily winning the W50-54 division while recording 37:47.

Photo by Mike Tymn

Nan Hall, 41, begins her sprint for the final 200 meters of The Pacific Sun 10K on Memorial Day. Competing for the first time in nearly five years, Hall clocked 37:26 to capture first place in the W40-44 division.

Photo by Mike Tymn

Part of the field in the 3000, Visalia Masters Meet, Visalia, Calif., May 18: (from left) Richard Thiel, M35, 10:55, Carol Freeborn, W30, 12:25, and Teddy Walton, M45, 11:59. Photo by Glen Williams

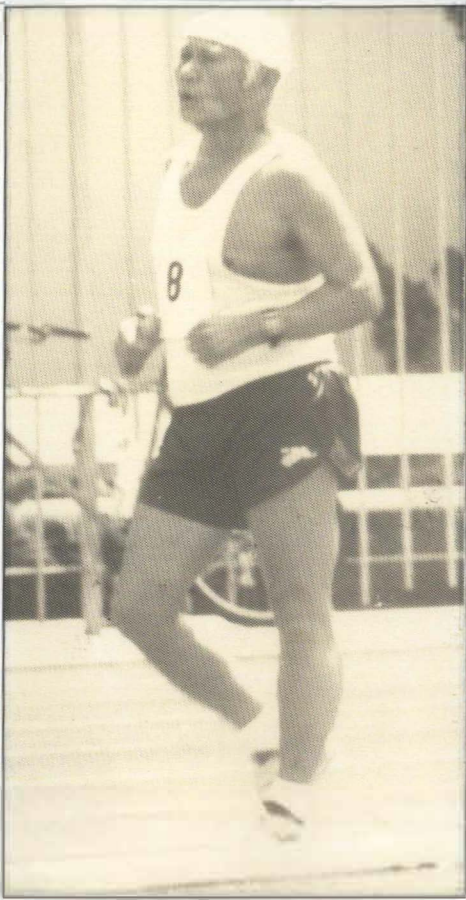

Anne Audain, 40, first 40+ runner in Advil Mini-Marathon, NYC, June 8, in 36:43.

photo by Marilyn Mitchell

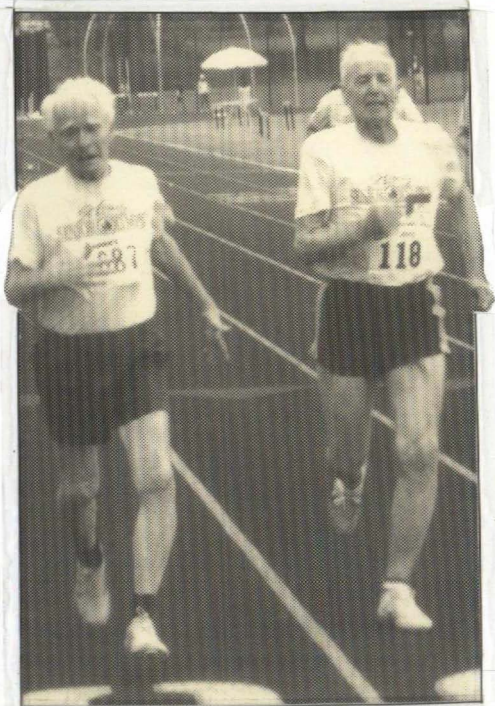

Gillian Horowitz, 41, 2nd masters woman (38:07) with husband, well-known playwright Israel Horowitz, Advil Mini-Marathon, June 8.

photo by Marilyn Mitchell

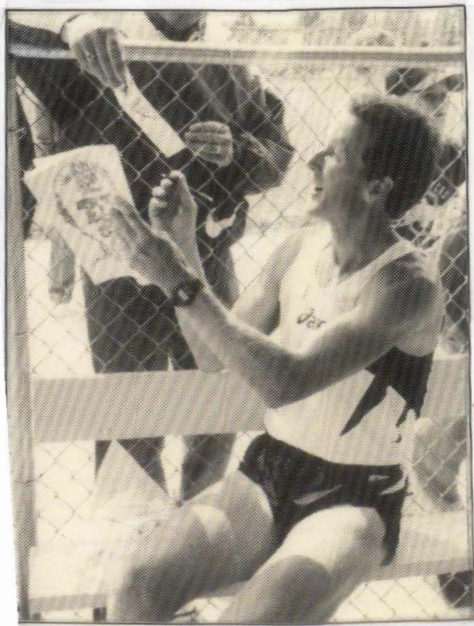

Mike Noritake, 1500 and 5000 racewalks winner in the M70 division, Crown Valley Senior Games, Occidental College, Los Angeles, April 28.

Photo by Cynthia Vaughn

Paul McDowell, 87, Webster Groves, Mo., and Emmett Bennett #118, Rapid City, S. Dak., in 50m, St. Louis Senior Games.

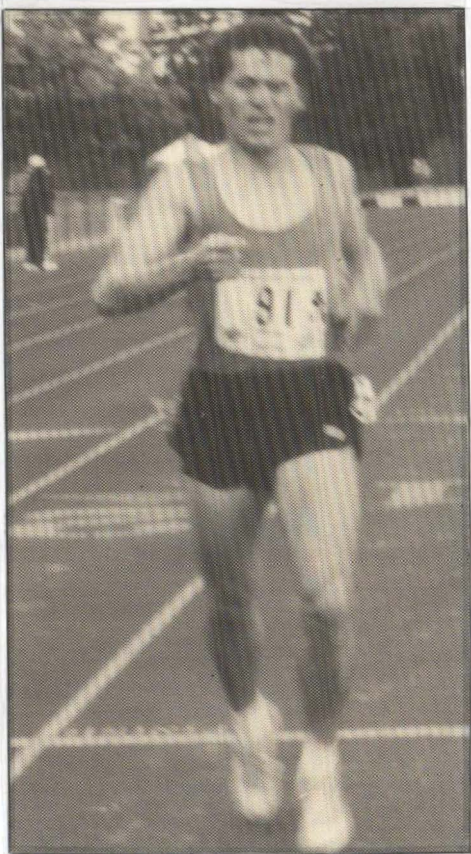

Photo by Hank Kiesel

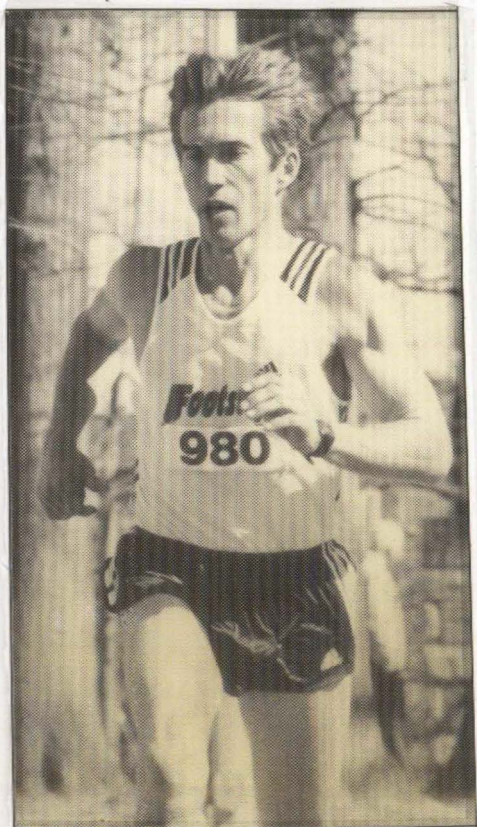

Steve Scott, 40, signs autographs after breaking the U.S. M40-44 mile record with a 4:10.43, Prefontaine Classic Meet, Eugene, Ore., May 1984. Photo by Jerry Wojcik

Edith Mendyka won the W75 silver medal in the javelin at the 1989 World Veterans Championships in Eugene.

David Blankenship, Ohio, M45 winner in the steeplechase (10:25.93), 1995 USATF National Masters Championships, East Lansing, Mich. This year's meet will be held in Spokane, Wash., August 15-18. Photo by Suzy Hess

Chuck Moeser, 44, first master (26:04),
American Classic 8K, Washington, D.C.

Photo by George Banker

Wendi Glassman, 40, New Jersey, in the mile,
1996 USATF Masters Indoor Championships,
Greensboro, N.C. Photo by Jerry Wojcik

Clarence Trahan broke the M80-84 long jump record with a 11-9/3.58, USATF National Masters Indoor Championships, Greensboro, N.C., March 29-31. Photo by Burl Gist

July 1996

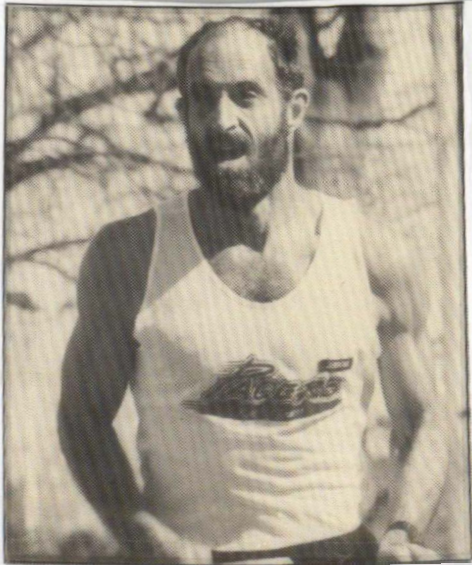

Gary Koenig, 51, placed 3rd M50 (10:07.7) in the 1500 RW at the Crown Valley Senior Games in Los Angeles, April 28.

Senior Hall of Famer Sister Marion Irvine was a spectator at the Pacific Sun 10K on Memorial Day.

Photo by Mike Tymn

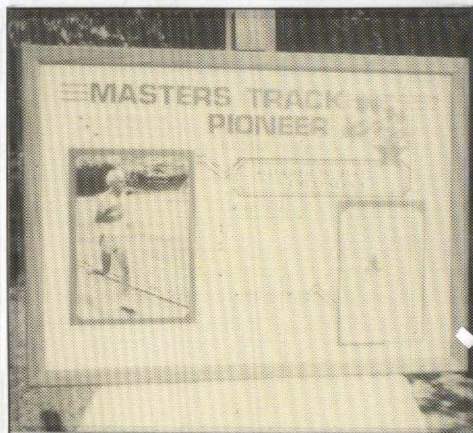

Second master Paul Peterson, 41, in 27:00,
American Classic 8K, Washington, D.C.

Photo by George Banker

Christel Miller, Crown Valley Senior Games Meet Director, W60 javelin winner, Occidental College, Los Angeles, April 28.

Photo by Cynthia Vaughn

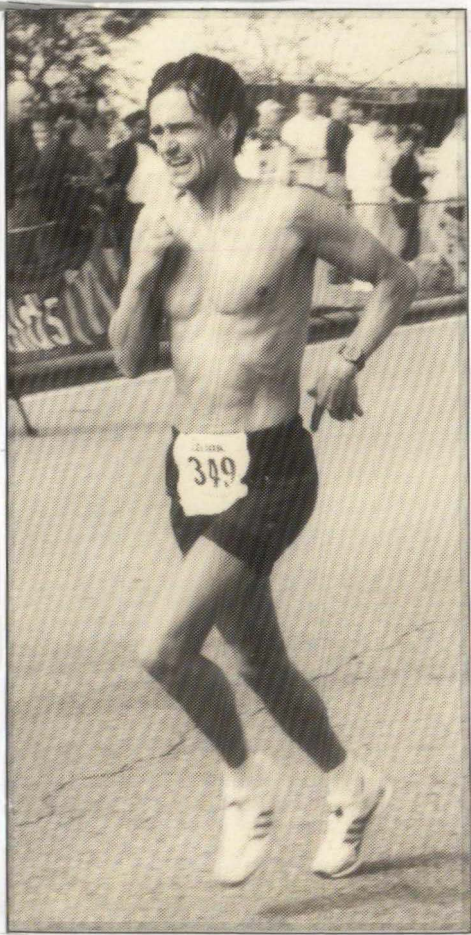

Nancy Grayson, W45, sprints to her seventh straight masters title (39:12), WZYP Cotton Row 10K, Huntsville, Ala., May 27.

Photo by Jim Oaks

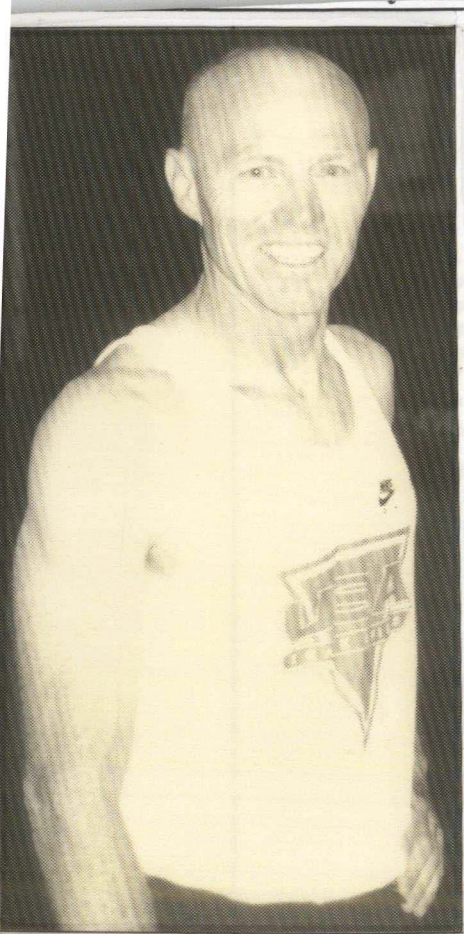

Kumiko Morimura (43, JPN) at the Advil Mini-Marathon, with statue of Fred Lebow. She won the trip to NYC from the Tokyo Mini-Marathon, a sister race. This was her first foreign travel.
Photo by Marilyn Mitchell

Leonard Vergunst, 40, masters winner
(2:42:52), Blue Angel Marathon, Pensacola, Fla.
Photo from Judith Bagshaw

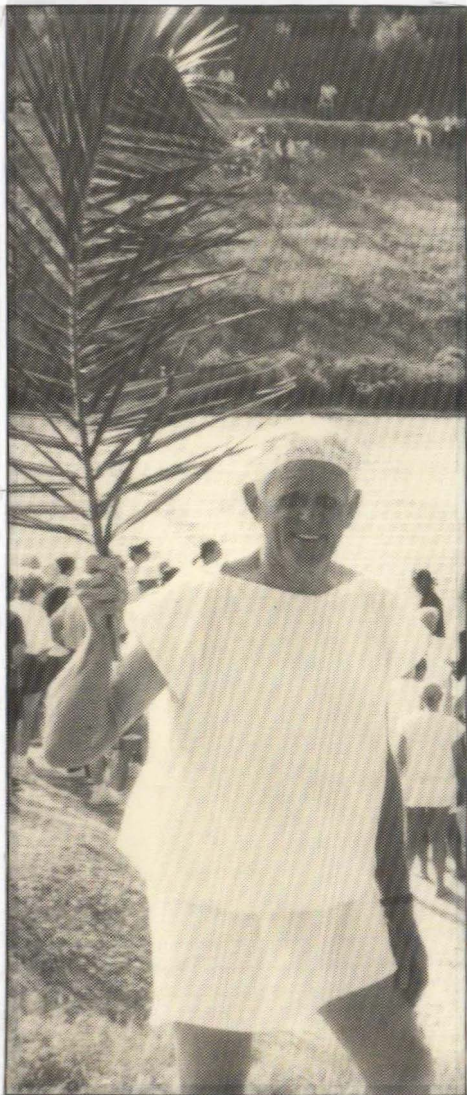

Aileen Riffin Soule standing next to statue of former teammate Duke Kahanamoku at Waikiki Beach, Honolulu.

Joe Johnston, 52, Florida, M50-54 national indoor champion in the pole vault.

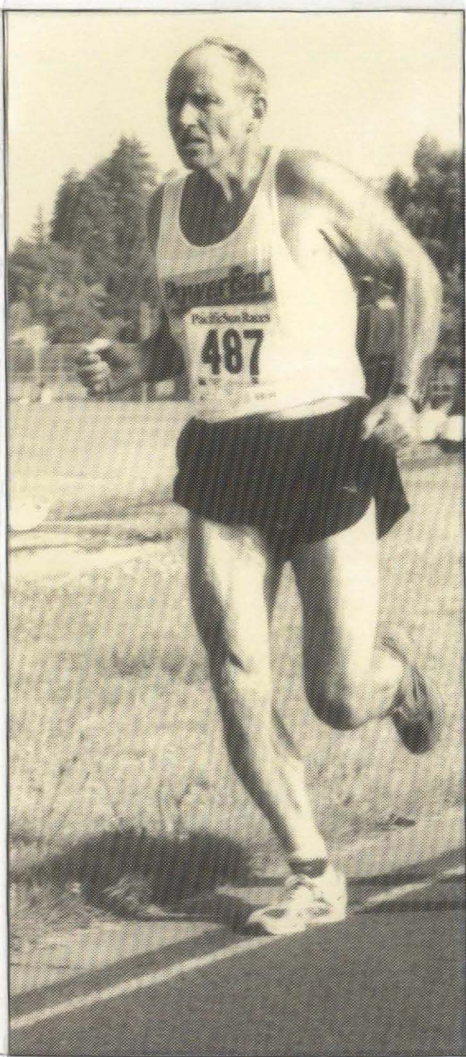

Photo by Suzy Hess

Payton Jordan, 79, at ancient Nemea, Greece for the 100th revival of the Olympic Games, June 1.

Weight throwers Armando Ricciard (l), 76, Nevada, and Tom McDermott, 78, Florida, at the 1996 USATF Masters Indoor Championships, Greensboro, N.C. Photo by Jerry Wojcik

Joe King of Alameda, CA, floors the accelerator for the final 200 meters of The Pacific Sun 10K on Memorial Day. The event finished on the College of Marin track. King, running his first race in the M70-74 division, broke the race record of 42:28 by Paul Reese in 1987 with a 40:37. King still holds the 60-64 record of 37:58 (1987) and the 65-69 record of 39:03 (1992).

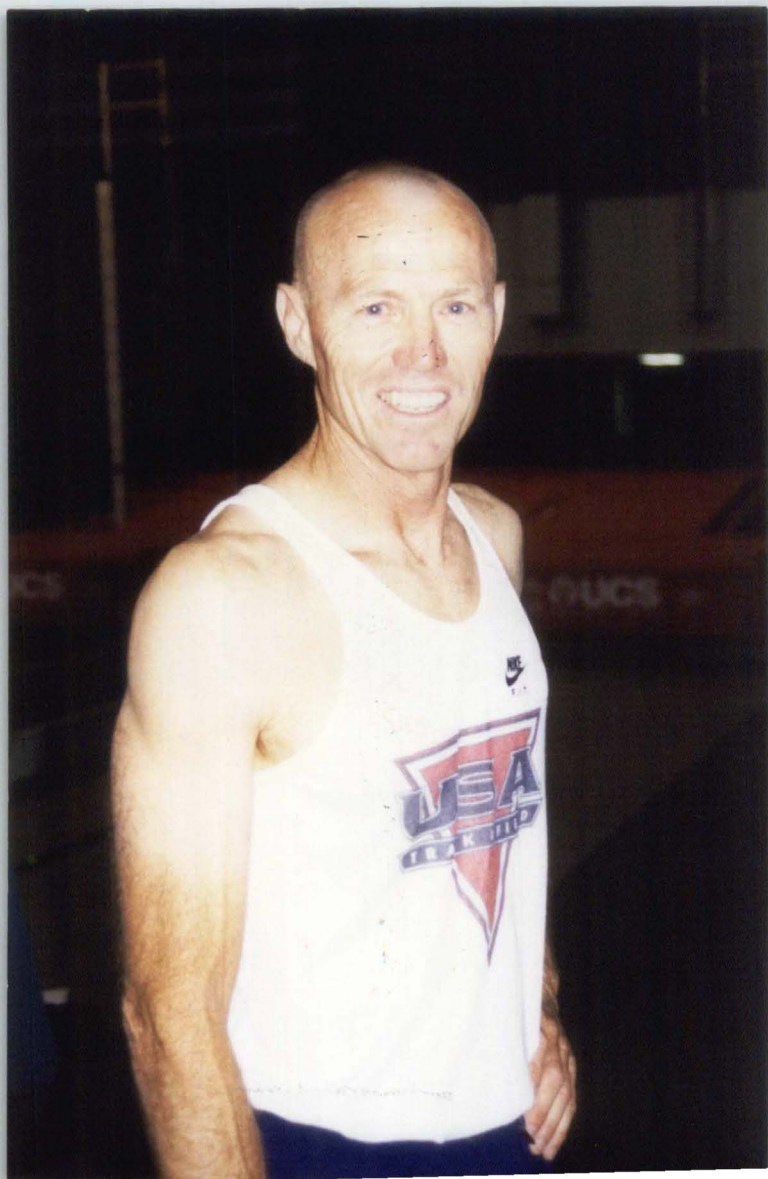

Photo by Mike Tymn

9 - 24

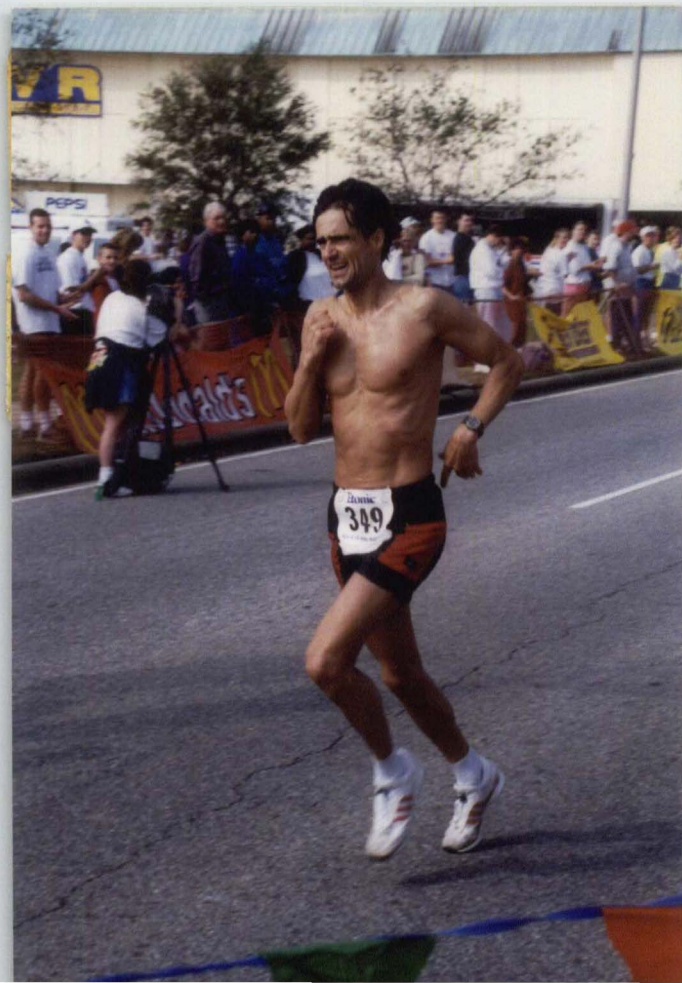

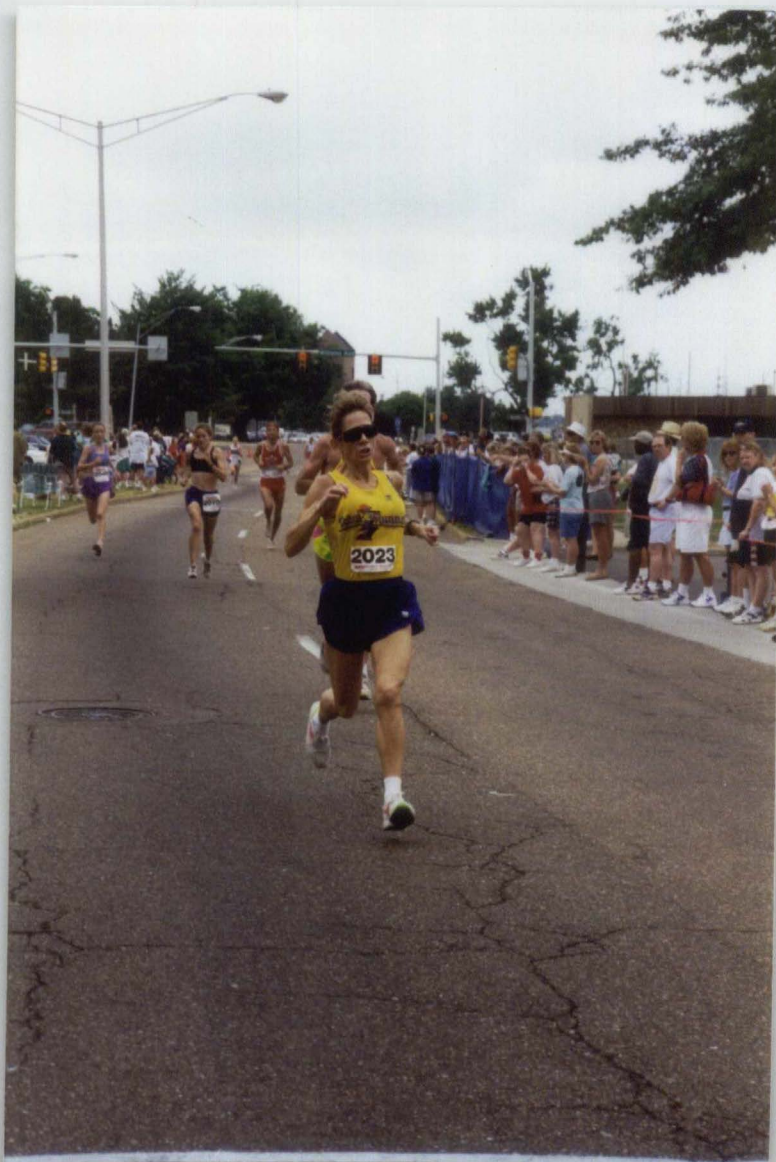

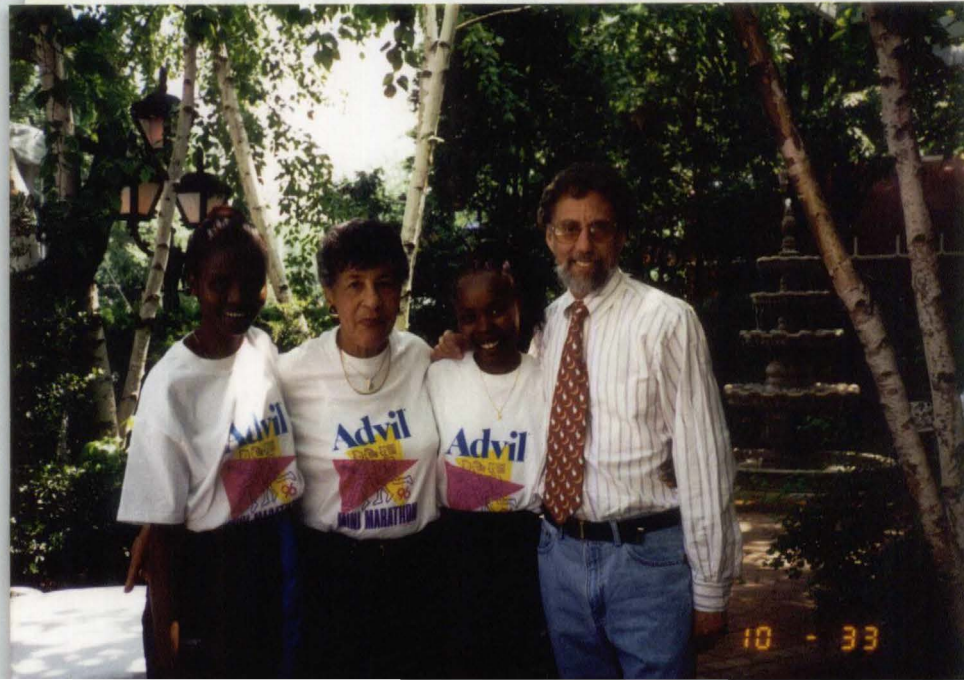

-- New York City Mayor Hylan pins a special medal on Aileen Riggin at the victory celebration following the 1920 Olympic Games. Helen Wainwright (silver) waits in line, followed by Helen Moody (gold medal winner in '28 Olympics).

W#1
2-46

#1
spec

7-25A

