Jerry Wojcik

Alan Bradford, Australia, winning the M60 800 (2:10.42), 13th WAVA Championships, Gateshead, Great Britain. Francisco Souza, Brazil, was second (2:11.29).
All of the women competitors in the pentathlon in the Masters Indoor Championships, Boston (l to r): Elaine Iba, 40, Skipper Clark, 53, Denise Jones, 37, Johnnye Valien, 75, Mary Trotto, 53, Anne Fisk, 54, Barbara Dickson, 41, and Liz Johnson, 44, with Becky Sisley, Games Committee member.
Pincas Shteicht, 61, guest competitor from Israel, was first in the long jump and triple jump, National Masters Indoor Championships, Boston.
Jerry Wojcik

Angel Roman in 4:24.43 nips Conor O’Driscoll, #544, (4:24.59) and Chris Yorges (4:24.60) in a thrilling finish in the M35 mile, Masters Indoor Championships, Boston.
Oneithea Lewis, 40, set three W40 U.S. records in the throws, Masters Indoor Championships, Boston.
Raisa Sinyavina, 47, finished in the 5000 racewalk in 28:58.68, 13th WAVA Championships, Gateshead, Great Britain.
Suzy Hess

Suzy Hess, Sylvania, Ohio, won the gold medal in the M45 shot (13.58) and broke the U.S. record in the 56# superweight (10.41), National Masters Indoor Championships, Boston.
Craig Fram, 42, Plaistow, N. H., broke his M40 U.S. record of 8:33.68 with an 8:32.52, National Indoor Championships, Boston.
Earl Fee, 71, at the 2000 NYRRC 5th Avenue Masters Mile, Manhattan.
Cathy Utzschneider, 45, Chestnut Hill, Mass., national champion in the 800 (2:31.09) and mile
(5:35.28), National Masters Indoor Championships, Boston.
Suzy Hess
Thom Weddle, M60 winner in the 3000 (10:56.50),
National Masters Indoor Championships, Boston.
Local athlete Darryl Decker, 54, Cambridge, Mass., in the high jump, Masters Indoor Championships, Boston.