
Photo by Mike Polansky
George Ishiki, first M65 (24:01), Windward 5K, Kailua, Hawaii.

Photo by Tesh Teshima
David Petersen of Bend, OR, just after finishing the 1996 Men's Olympic Trial Marathon race in Charlotte, NC.

Photo by Suzy Hess
Mary Russell won the W35 800 with a 2:38.05, Silver State Indoor Meet, Reno, Feb. 18.

Photo by Suzy Hess

Photo by Mike Polansky
Organizing Committee for the 1996 National Masters Indoor Championships, Greensboro, N.C.: (l to r) Eileen Hogan, Tom Moreau, Sally Foster, Ron Foster, meet director, Jane Billings, and Randy Billings.

Photo from Championships Organizing Committee
Oldest runners in the USATF Masters 10K Championships, Plainview, L.I., N.Y., April 13, Dudley Healy (1), 81, Chatham, N.J., and Charles Feldman, 80, NYC.

Photo by Mike Polansky
Prices at a downtown restaurant; to get the price in U.S. dollars, divide by 4.5. (R6.95/4.5 = $1.54).
First three M70-74 (l to r): Bob Henninger, second, Naoto Inada, third, and Etsuo Tonokawa, first (82:56), Tamanaha Memorial 15K, Honolulu, April 7.

Photo by Tesh Teshima

Photo by George Banker
John Ausherman, 40, Chambersburgh, Pa., second master (1:12:49), Bethesda Chase 20K, March 3.
Photo by George Banker

Photo by George Banker

Photo by George Banker
Close finish in the W65 60m, won by Pat Peterson #516, New York, in 10.71. Sumi Onodera-Leonard #501, California, was second, Magdalena Kuehne #382, California, third, and Leonore McDaniels, Virginia, fourth, 1996 Masters Indoor Championships, Greensboro, N.C.

Photo by Suzy Hess
Pedestrians in downtown Durban.
Ed Sell, 47, Illinois, in the 3000 racewalk, 1996 Masters Indoor Championships, Greensboro, N.C. Photo by Jerry Wojcik
The Holiday Inn Crowne Plaza -- the headquarters hotel for the XII WAVA Games next year in Durban.