Suzy Hess

Winning M40-49 4x100 (47.52) team (from l): Eric Dixon, Mark Pasos, Raphael August, and Eugene Anton, 35th National Masters Championships.
Anna Wlodarczyk, 51, guest entrant, was first in seven events, including the pentathlon, 35th National Masters Championships.
Heidi Hauch (r), first W40 (27:24.92) and Gayle Johnson, first W50 (27:27.71), 35th National Masters Championships, Orono, Me.
Finalists in the W40 200 (from l): Kathy Reed, Robin Galloway, Sylvia Wasson, Mimi Ney, 3rd (29.96), Kathy Shook, 2nd (28.58), and Joy Upshaw-Margerum, 1st (26.66), 35th National Masters Championships.
Finalists in the M65 200 (from l): James Ware, Dennis Melanson, Richard Camp, 3rd (27.73), Don Beck, Larry Colbert, 1st (26.95), Spencer Parrish, and Wayne Bennett (27.19), 35th National Masters Championships.
Don Preven

First three in the 2001 George Sheehan Memorial M70-79 Mile in the Fifth Ave. Mile (from l): John McManus, 78, third; Jim Sutton, 70, first (5:38.8); and Walter Desind, 70, second. This year’s NYRR Fifth Ave. Mile is scheduled for Sept. 28.
Suzy Hess

Bob Sager, second M50 (35.47), Northwest Regional Masters Championships, Salt Lake City, July 19-20.
Anke Moritz, guest athlete, was first in the W40 80H (11.82), 35th National Masters Championships.
Ed Gonera, M50 gold medalist in the 200 and 400, 35th National Masters Championships.
The start of the 2001 Men's Masters Mile, 2001 Champions Run for Children, San Francisco, (from l): Tim Minor, Kevin Ostenberg, Graeme Fell (winner, 4:26.02), Dave Clingan, Brian Davis, and Jamin Aasum. This year's race is scheduled for Sept. 15.
email
Jerry Wojcik

Chris Yorges (second left) accepted his 2001 M35 Track Athlete of the Year Award at the Athletes' Meeting, 35th National Masters Championships. On his left is Bill Roe, USATF President, and on his right, George Mathews, Masters T&F Chair and Suzy Hess, Masters T&F Vice-Chair.
Kathy Martin broke W50 records in the 800 (2:25.00) and 1500 (4:52.55), 35th National Masters Championships.
Jerry Wojcik

Aaron Sampson at the Northwest Regional Masters Championships, Salt Lake City, July 19-20. In June, Sampson broke the M40 long jump world record with a 25-2 1/2 leap.