PAYNE USES HAMMER TO NAIL DOWN RECORD

By JACOB WILLIAMS

Proud of leading a field, Howard Payne will make the crowd roar tonight with the advantage of the moment. He'll supply all that stuff that was missing in every other AAU Masters meet

this year, "California me-

suring," and let you know what the future looks like. English and 1,500 were big events in the past, but could be called "my way under the weather conditions." This California

event didn't add much.

"I'm not going to force a reaction on you, Howard. But I do want to make sure you know what you're doing."

"Would you stop this, please, Howard?"

"I'm an athlete!"

"If you say so, Howard."

"You're right."

"Howard will need to nail down a few things for you."

"Would you stop this, please, Howard?"

"I'm an athlete!"

"If you say so, Howard."

"You're right."

"Howard will need to nail down a few things for you."

Howard Payne, 39-49 year-old hammer thrower, is the world's second best in the category, behind Jack Payne of England. He'll be competing in the 1,500-meter event.

"Howard is a good athlete, but he needs to learn to slow down."

"Would you stop this, please, Howard?"

"I'm an athlete!"

"You're right."
