u.s.m.i.t.t.—tours to Hanover

More than a year ago we began our investigation on the best mode of travel and accommodations for the USMITT in Hanover July/August '79. Last summer we were able to block 400 beds in Hanover in three different types of accommodations:

- (1) Budget hotels--The Union and The Hotel Foessee--single or twin
- (2) Standard hotels--The Koerner and Kastens Hotel Luisenhof--twin
- (3) Deluxe hotel--The Intercontinental--with bath and buffet breakfast

All hotels are located in downtown Hanover within a reasonable distance of the stadium. Deposit has been sent to hold these rooms for your use. However, advance payment of nearly $30,000 was requested for February 17, 1979, with full payment due in Germany prior to our group's arrival.

Because of the policy of our government toward deregulation, the air fare structure has been in a chaotic condition. We have been unable to come up with firm figures until this week. Despite your many pleas for information, we could not give you details on the package until now. At the same time, we must request immediate action in order to protect the reservations that have already been made for you.

By March 15 we must have received $250.00 per person to guarantee room and flight. Between March 15 and May 1, deposits will be accepted only if space is still available. May 19 is the last date for the Hanover competition entry to be received in Hanover. On or before June 1 your final payment is due for whatever package you decide upon. Now, with that general statement, let me explain to you the various opportunities and options you may choose from.

Knowing that you have a wide variety of needs and interests in this trip, we have tried to provide different lengths of stay plus different departure cities plus the three different types of accommodations. So please study these options very carefully to select the one that best suits your needs.

In addition to this basic outline of the tours to Hanover, there will be four other optional extensions. The tours are based on 2-, 3- and 4-week periods. The 2-week span is primarily for the person who wishes to attend the full meet in Hanover and get home as soon as possible. There will be three extra days at the end of the meet before the flight returns to the States, allowing a choice of a weekend in Berlin, a brief Rhine cruise, or free time. The 3-week tour will afford time for a tour through the Alpine countries, and

WE ARE WELCOMING YOU CORDIALLY ...

The Deutscher Leichtathletik-Verband (German Athletic Federation), the Athletic Association of Lower Saxony (Niedersachsen) and the Town of Hannover have the honour to stage the 3rd WORLD VETERANS CHAMPIONSHIPS 1979. Within the framework of the WORLD VETERANS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, Hannover is very pleased to act host for the international veteran representatives from any parts of the world and to offer hospitality to their relatives and to the officials from the International Federations. The Organizing Committee's member staff is providing the conditions for staging successfully the competitions and for making possible that veterans have a friendly get-together with fellow-competitors on an international level. The invitational programme elaborated hereinafter specifies the conditions for your approach to Hannover.

The present information is addressed to any persons concerned in the athletic world and transmits a warm invitation to participate in the event organized in the Federal Republic of Germany.

The Deutscher Leichtathletik-Verband trusts by this event will be disseminated fresh impulses for the sport in higher ages and sincerely hopes that the International Amateur Athletic Federation (IAAF) may take a fresh look at this new sphere of duties.

Prof. Dr. August Kirsch
President of the
DEUTSCHER LEICHTATHLEIK-VERBAND

Hans Axmann
President of the
ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

the 4-week period especially suits those who wish to go on to Yugoslavia, meet some of our friendly competitors and extend through Greece with a short cruise in the Greek Isles. Of course that extra time can be translated into free time for your own specific projects.

The 2-week tours available are from Los Angeles departing July 23, returning August 6. From Boston, New York and Chicago depart July 25, return August 7. These facts, with the exception of dates, are also true for the 3 and 4-week tours.

Because we do not know what your option is for the balance of the time from the end of the meet until the flight departs, the package is open-ended at that period, as is the price. It will be necessary for you to fill out the forms in detail for us to be able to finish the total reservations and billing.

Now, as you can see, with so many choices available there is no way that we can determine at this point how many of you would be leaving from which city to Hanover and when, and certainly when you will want to return. With train, coach and air transportation available, we will make the best arrangements possible when we have your definite reservations. Most convenient for you would be a coach connection between your point of arrival in Europe and your hotel in Hanover. However, if there is not a sufficient number to merit a bus, then we shall work out individual travel.

If none of these options suit your needs, then our next step would be to book your reservation on a scheduled airline with the best fare available. In order to assure you of both air and hotel reservations, I urge you to respond immediately to this writing.

You have been eagerly awaiting the details. Please act now to assure your reservations for air and hotel.

ADDITIONAL OPTIONS:

PURCHASE or LEASE CARS. Many of you have expressed interest in the purchase or leasing of cars while in Germany. We can provide this service for you (including insurance and shipping) at the same price or less as your local dealer. Just let us know on your application and we will forward the information. You can definitely save on the U.S. delivery price by your overseas purchase...and have the use of the car in Germany.

In order to give you an accurate price quote on the tours including BERLIN, RHINE CRUISE, ALPINE COUNTRIES, and YUGOSLAVIA/GREECE, we must have some idea of how many of you are interested. Please check your application form, without obligation. We will base our prices on the replies received by March 15. At that time we shall notify you as to the detailed itinerary and cost.

3. World Veterans Championships Track and Field

July 27. - August 2. 1979

Niedersachsen-Stadion
Hannover
Federal Republic of Germany

In Göteborg in 1977, I was privileged to attend the Championships held for veterans from all parts of the world. I am, therefore, very glad to have this opportunity to add a few words to the first official brochure for the 1979 Hannover championships.

The IAAF welcomes the movement of veteran athletics and acknowledges the fact that this new branch of our sport, which is growing in importance year by year, certainly contributes towards extra propaganda for athletics in general.

It is also true to say that many veterans not only practice the sport themselves but also encourage younger athletes, acting in many cases as judges and coaches.

As far as technical rules are concerned, the IAAF Council believes that there can only be one set of basic international athletic rules for all levels and ages. However, concerning the eligibility status of athletes competing in veteran meetings, it is felt that this question should be decided by the veteran movement itself, the forthcoming Puerto Rico Congress, on October, is expected to approve an addition to IAAF rules to bring this about.

Having witnessed the 1977 Veteran Championships, I know how much pleasure all participants derive from the competition which brings together so many of their own age groups.

I therefore, hope that the meeting in Hannover will be even more successful, and, in the name of the IAAF I extend greetings to fellow veterans from all over the world.

Adriaan Paulen, IAAF President

COME TO HANNOVER FOR A GOOD TIME!

A wish or a promise? We leave it to you to interpret the meaning of this motto for your own visit to our town. But we do promise to do all in our power to give you a good time and happy memories.

The pictures in this brochure are intended to reflect the variety of facilities available which make Hannover the natural rendezvous for ordinary, friendly people.

Relax, take a break, recharge your batteries. That is what Hannover is good for - enjoyment.

The most magnificent of Hannover's parks and gardens is the Royal Gardens (Königliche Gärten) at Herrenhausen surrounding the castle which was once the summer residence of the kings and princes of Hannover. They were laid out more than 300 years ago and have been lovingly cultivated ever since. Unfortunately the castle was destroyed in 1943.

The highest fountain (82 m) in Northern Germany, the oldest open-air theatre

(where now, as then, Shakespeare and Molière plays are performed) and the greatest series of frescoes are features which make these historic gardens particularly important.

Hannover's opera-house and theatre do not close down during the summer, as they do in most other large towns. For more than 25 years now the popular „Herrenhausen festival weeks“ have been held from June to August in the „Gartentheater“ (garden theatre) and „Galeriegebäude“ (gallery building), with over 90 performances from the world of opera, theatre, ballet and concert hall. Hannover's museums are well worth a visit. See, for instance, the golden carriage used by Royal princes of bygone days - the most valuable head in Hannover, the bust of Echnaton - the fossilized remains of prehistoric saurians - or the original drawings for the „Max and Moritz“ stories by Wilhelm Busch. You will be amazed at the fascinating variety of exhibits on show in our galleries and museums. Admission in most cases is free.

The flea market held every Saturday, summer and winter, on the banks of the river Leine - where Hannover's history began - is a completely different kind of rendezvous for friendly people. No other comparable city in Germany can offer this friendly way of buying and selling so many things throughout the year, framed on the one side of the river by the venerable old walls of the town fortifications of yesteryear and on the other bank of the Leine by the colourful, buxom figures of the „Nanas“ modern 20th-century sculptures by the French artist Niki de Saint Phalle. Only London and Copenhagen have anything like it. Another place well worth seeing is Hannover's zoo, which can stand comparison with Hamburg's „Hagenbeck“ and the Frankfurt zoo of Prof. Grzymek. Form your own opinion, for each zoo has its own special attractions. We have the largest variety of antelopes, the most advanced cheetahs' enclosure, some of our eagle-owls, those great nocturnal birds, are even returned to the wild, and our black jaguars are famous all over the world. We also breed African elephants, and for the very young it was we who invented the children's zoo where you can actually stroke the animals.

So now make up your own mind - are these not splendid „rendezvous“ for friendly people like you and me?

See you soon in Hannover - for a good time.

u.s.m.i.t.t.—tours to Hanover

More than a year ago we began our investigation on the best mode of travel and accommodations for the USMITT in Hanover July/August '79. Last summer we were able to block 400 beds in Hanover in three different types of accommodations:

- (1) Budget hotels--The Union and The Hotel Foessee--single or twin
- (2) Standard hotels--The Koerner and Kastens Hotel Luisenhof--twin
- (3) Deluxe hotel--The Intercontinental--with bath and buffet breakfast

All hotels are located in downtown Hanover within a reasonable distance of the stadium. Deposit has been sent to hold these rooms for your use. However, advance payment of nearly $30,000 was requested for February 17, 1979, with full payment due in Germany prior to our group's arrival.

Because of the policy of our government toward deregulation, the air fare structure has been in a chaotic condition. We have been unable to come up with firm figures until this week. Despite your many pleas for information, we could not give you details on the package until now. At the same time, we must request immediate action in order to protect the reservations that have already been made for you.

By March 15 we must have received $250.00 per person to guarantee room and flight. Between March 15 and May 1, deposits will be accepted only if space is still available. May 19 is the last date for the Hanover competition entry to be received in Hanover. On or before June 1 your final payment is due for whatever package you decide upon. Now, with that general statement, let me explain to you the various opportunities and options you may choose from.

Knowing that you have a wide variety of needs and interests in this trip, we have tried to provide different lengths of stay plus different departure cities plus the three different types of accommodations. So please study these options very carefully to select the one that best suits your needs.

In addition to this basic outline of the tours to Hanover, there will be four other optional extensions. The tours are based on 2-, 3- and 4-week periods.
