Rodgers, Binder Set 10-Mile Records

Masters winners, both of whom set age-40-and-over American records, Laurie Binder, 41, (57:11), and Bill Rodgers, 40, (49:14), after the Crim 10 Mile Road Race in Flint, Mich., on August 27.

FLINT, Mich. — Summer's grueling heat finally gave way August 27 for the Crim 10-Mile Road Race, and masters runners responded with record times.

After weeks of 90- and 100-degree weather, it was a pleasant surprise to see temperatures in the mid-50s, with a cloud cover and little wind, for the start of the featured 10-miler through the streets of Flint.

Before the day was out, two American masters age-group records were bettered in the eighth race of the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit

ICI/USRA Masters Circuit.

Bill Rodgers (M40, Sherborn, Mass.)
led the way, running a 4:55 first mile and then maintaining that pace for a 49:14 mark to break Barry Brown's 49:46 American masters record. "It's my fastest time in two years," he said,
"and I don't consider myself to be in top shape."

Great Britain's Mike Hurd, 42, was next across, in 51:30. "Unfortunately, after running Asbury Park two weeks ago, I got mixed up with Steve Jones and ran a bit too hard over an 18-miler. I suffered today a bit for it, but that's the way the game goes. Since I've been here I've been really struggling; the legs just don't come around," he said. "I was in front of Billy for about the first mile or mile and a half, and then he went by me at two miles. The big problem, after about 2½ miles, was that I couldn't get with anybody. I basically ran 7 miles all on my own."

Laurie Binder (W40, Oakland, Calif.) also joined the record barrage, taking the women's masters title at 57:11, though she had hoped to go under 57 minutes. The old W40 record was 58:28, held by Cindy Dalrymple.

"I just wish I had run faster in the middle — I fell back a little then," Binder said. "I felt good at 7 and 8 miles; it was one of those days when you keep going through the miles and they are there before you know it."

Single-age records went to Christine Tattersall (47, Killingworth, Conn.), at 1:02:11; and Gina Faust (51, Woodland Hills, Calif.), at 1:05:44.

After an injury upset his plans to run the 10-miler, New Zealand's John Dix-Continued on page 23

Victory? No, in this case it means "No. 2." Carl Hammen took second in both the 5000 (19:38.5) and the 1500 (5:13.2) on his 65th birthday at the North American Championships.

The WAVA North American Track and Field Championships drew 302 participants — including about 100 from the U.S.A. — to York University in Toronto, Canada on August 27-28.

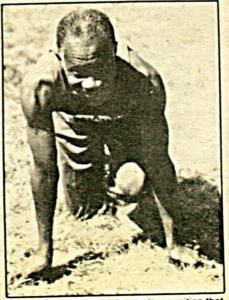

Competitors came from as far away as Texas, Georgia, California and British Columbia. The entrant traveling the longest distance was Ken Cohen, 59, a Canadian citizen currently living in Johannesburg, South Africa.

As might be expected, those who travel several thousand miles seeking competition are generally highly competitive and skilled in their respective events.

Valentine Breaks World 400 Mark

The 226 entrants who showed up for TAC's Eastern Regional Masters Championships at Rhode Island College in Providence, August 21, made it the largest masters meet ever held in the state.

But, that was secondary to the records set by Rudy Valentine, who ran a 59.5 400 to break the M65-69 world record of 61.4 held by John Alexander of the U.S., and a 50.0 300 hurdles, lowering Bob Hunt's U.S. mark of 50.63

Other noteworthy performers included Al Walton, M35, with meet's bests in the 100 (10.9) and 200 (22.3); John Dwyer, M40, winner of the 800 (2:01.6) and 1500 (4:07.8); David Reiss, M40, with a 210-5 javelin throw;

The National Masters News is an official publication of The Athletics Congress Masters Track & Field and Long Distance Running Committees, and of the World Association of Veteran Athletes. As an independent publication, its editorial policy is not necessarily that of TAC or WAVA.

The National Masters News is devoted exclusively to track & field, long distance running, and race-walking for men and women over age 30. Each month it delivers 24 to 48 pages of results, schedules, entry forms, age records, rankings, photos, articles, training tips, and all the inside scoops and information that affect the world of masters athletics competition.

Some masters events are sponsored by TAC, the national governing body for athletics in the USA. Some are sponsored by individuals, clubs or other senior organizations.

Generally, anyone age 30 or over may come to a masters event and participate. Some events are limited to ages 40+, 50+ or 55+; (please check the schedule for details). Some events require advance registration. Some require a current TAC card ($7 to $11 per year, depending on the region). To inquire about a TAC card, call The Athletics Congress in your area, or 317/638-9155. There are no qualifying standards for any masters athletics event

WAVA MEDAL STANDARDS

Medal standards in the World Veterans Games (August NMN) are not needed. They discriminate against older people regardless of their training. Standards are unfair and political. They would cut off the 97-year-old man who won four world medals in Melbourne.

Suzie Garrett

Thousand Oaks, California

WAVA medal standards are too high. They will not encourage anyone to participate in exercise or in competition. They will not inspire Canadians to take a holiday in Eugene in 1989.

Medals are prestigious and significant to older folks who want something to touch and show. Medals are a reward for competing.

Give medals to those who are first, second, or third in their age groups.

Mrs. Stephen Nemeth Tsawwassen, B.C.

I am writing to express my vote for medal standards. I am a 68-year-old female and have only been involved in T&F for 1½ years. At our Northern City Meet in July, I was a fraction under the WAVA standards. With standards, I want and must improve to win medals. I have seen 80+ individuals walk away with gold medals for everything they entered just for having entered. Where is the motivation? I vote yes for standards.

Ruth Talley Hayward, California The same people bring up standards at every Council meeting. This year there was enough political clout to squeak them through.

Standards are not needed to keep old people in the convalescent homes from swarming to the World Games, clogging up the lanes, slowing down the schedules, confusing the organizers and causing anything else that might go wrong.

Standards project an unfriendly atmosphere. They are a bias against women; not fair to older women. They dampen the will to participate. They are not practical nor realistic.

What good have standards done in Canada and Europe where there is not one woman 80-or-older competing? Standards might dishearten the 97-year-old man from India.

Myrtle Field Spring Valley, California

I am opposed to any standards because they may discourage some older persons from participating.

The purpose of the competition is to encourage people of mature years to enter the Games.

Older participants, above all, want something to display for their unusual efforts.

Mrs. Richard Mallow Poway, California

NORTH AMERICAN T&F MEET

I want to express my appreciation to Don Farquharson and the Canadian Masters, particularly Brian Oxley, for the fine event they presented at York University in Toronto, August 27-28. I hope the USA entries added to the quality of the meet.

Now that the North American Masters Championships are to be held every two years, with the next meeting in 1990, I'm confident the CMAA has given the event a good start, and that we can anticipate the meet will grow in stature over the years.

David Pain WAVA North American Delegate San Diego, California

At the recent North American Championships, a potentially disastrous situation was averted by the intervention of a TAC official on my behalf. I wish to take this opportunity to publicly thank Marjorie Moore, TAC official, for her handling of this matter, and David Walsh, meet director, for his cooperation.

Alfonzo Walton Cortland, New York

U.S. NATIONALS

I have just returned from the 21st Annual U.S. TAC National Masters Track & Field Championships at Showalter Field in Winter Park, Florida.

I must congratulate Nick Gailey and all the people who helped him put on this impressive meet.

Two special points I would like to

- 1. The beauty of the grounds was outstanding with the shrubs, banners and the absence of milling crowds in the infield.
- 2. A special remark must be made for the quality of the announcing. Al Sheahen's contribution to this was greatly appreciated. It brings a complete new dimension to the activities.

However, I do have one negative remark. Scheduling the 4x100 and 4x400 on Friday evening was very unfair.

For example, Bob Watanabe and Gene Harte put on a good show in the 4x400. Making up a 70-to-100-meter deficit was no easy performance. But, the next day the 60-year-old bodies were unable to perform as well when it was time for the 400-meter main event.

The smart ones stayed out of the relays and were fresh and ready the next day.

Can't we keep the 4x400 relay at the end of the meet where it belongs? Then we can run relays for just the fun of it,

> Gene Harte Los Angeles, California

We both to congratulate Al Sheahen on the fine job of announcing he did at the Orlando meet, as well as others we've been at. Sure, he had help; but it was him that kept the interest sustained. Nice job!

Marie and Don Henry Brick, New Jersey

Al Sheahen's announcing at the TAC Nationals made an enormous difference. Unfortunately, we had to run an extra lap in the 10K. There was no difference in the placings, though, and it was an excellent meet anyway.

John Woods S. Harpswell, Maine

At the recent National Masters meet in Orlando, I encountered a group of dedicated and hard-working officials who didn't know the throwing rules as well as they should have.

The head field judge did know the rules, but only communicated the correct information after protests, and usually not until the middle or the end of the event.

Hammer: Although this event was officiated well, my 35-39 group threw in the dark. I train for this event all year long. Throwing with no light is unsafe for officials doing the measuring, and it doesn't create an environment for good throws. Enough time should be scheduled to compete in adequate light.

Shot: The rules were simple: if there were less than eight throwers in an age group, each was supposed to get six throws. If there were more than eight throwers, each was to get three trials; then the eight finalists would get three more throws. However, after the three trial rounds were over and the officials had announced the finalists, a latecomer arrived. The officials said he could throw — against the rules. I protested, and the officials reversed their decision.

Discus: As in the shot, three trial throws were scheduled to determine eight finalists. One entrant fouled his three throws, but was allowed to con-

But—THEY CAN TEACH YOU TO BE THE BEST THAT YOU CAN BE

These VIDEO TEACHING TAPES feature some of the most accomplished throwers in the great history of Track & Field. The teaching techniques have been hailed by peers as the best, and one has received international awards for its excellence.

MAC WILKINS' Gold Medal Discus

"I consider this video training program to be one of my finest achievements in 20 years with the discus." It is a unique instructional package that teaches the mechanical, physical and men-that teaches the mechanical, physical and mental aspects of discus throwing for young and old alike. In addition to my demonstrations, you will learn from studying the techniques of such discus greats, past and present, as L.J. Silvester, Wolfgang Schmidt, Imrich Bugar and Luis Delis with my "voice over" instructional comments. The program contains nine sections: 1. The Throw Part I; 2. The Throw Part II; 3. Drills; 4. Rhythm; 5. Advanced Technique; 6. Visualization; 7. Troubleshooting; 8. Conditioning; 9. Motivation.

"I have found that Masters throwers can be as dedicated to their own pursuit of excellence as youngsters and established competitors. That is why I felt this training program would be of great help to you Masters competitors. Join me in your quest to be the best that you can be."

YURIY SYEDIKH'S SyberVision Hammer Video

East meets West. This one-of-a-kind video teaching tape combines hammer techniques of the East with the latest learning technologies of the West. Emphasis on the basics of the hammer throw takes the mystery out of the event. Instructions cover the 3 turn throw. Featured model, Yuriy Syedikh - USSR. Winning Hammer Ways was produced by SyberVision wiith Ed Burke (widely renowned U.S. Olympian), Stewart Tougher and Dr. L. Pataki acting as technical advisors and directors.

TOM PETRANOFF'S Javelin Video

A video encyclopedia of the javelin throw covers complete instructions on: Drills...Weight Training...Conditioning...Pliometrics...Throwing Technique and Mental Preparation. Your instructor is Tom Petranoff, one of the world's finstitute and instructors of the level in throw to 1982.

est competitors and instructors of the javelin throw. In 1983, Tom threw to a World's Record of 327' and in 1986 threw to a World Best, 280' (new javelin) and was ranked #1 in the

COMBINATION DISCUS & SHOT

With both teaching cassettes combined into one tape, you have over 40 years' competitive experience by Wilkins and Feuerbach in approximately one hour of instructional viewing and learning. If you follow the pattern of most throwers, you are probably learning and competing in both the discus and the shot. This is your opportunity to be taught both events by two of the best ever competitors and achievers...and at a savings over the cost of two individual cassettes.

AL FEUERBACH'S Basic 70 Foot Shot Putting

"Shot Putting was never a part-time thing with me...it was an obsession." Through a competitive career spanning 22 years and including over 525 competitions in 24 countries, AI was able to experience this event as few athletes have. Every bit of his learning experience is packed into the video teaching cassette and provides some critical keys to progress for Masters shot putters like

You will be instructed by Al, Dave Laut (72' 3"), Olympic Bronze Medalist 1984, 4 time U.S. National Champion and Mac Wilkins (69' 11/2"). Dave demonstrates the rotational style throw and Mac instructs on its technique.

Basic 70 Foot Shot Putting presents the foundation for personal shot putting progress and is potentially as useful to the 40' thrower as it is to the 70' thrower. "I truly enjoyed my many years of experience with the shot. I'd like to share them with you."

WILLIE BANKS' Banks On Triple Jump

Olympian and World Record holder Willie Banks has created a unique video for triple jumpers to help develop the skills and technique necessary to jump far. Anyone, young and old, aspiring to be a triple jumper or to improve their skills can benefit from this video instructional cassette. The video consists of training aids for coaches as well, including: drills, flexibility, weight training conditioning and bounding ex-ibility, weight training, conditioning and bounding exercises. Demonstrated and narrated by Willie Banks.

Gary Faneli: The Skinniest Samoan

ou never quite know how Gary Fanelli will be attired when he toes the starting line of a road race. He has run as Michael Jackson, Lt. Col. Oliver North, a ballplayer for the New York Mets, The King of Tibet, Chef Ronzoni, Gary Glendale (a respectable banker), Dr. Outrageous, and Clarence Nerdelbaum, to name just some of his outlandish running costumes.

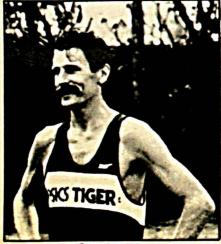

On October 2, Fanelli will run the Olympic Marathon in Seoul as a Samoan.

If you aren't familiar with the physical characteristics of the inhabitants of American Samoa, you might not appreciate the humor in that. Generally, Samoans are built like weightlifters or wrestlers. A very lean 6-2 and 152 pounds, Fanelli hardly fits the mold.

"I'm the skinniest guy there," said Fanelli, a 37-year-old native of the Philadelphia, Pa., area, on a recent visit to Honolulu. "I'm living in the village of Tafuna, so they call me Tafuna Slim. I get a lot of laughs and giggles from the people there when I'm out on a training run in nothing more than a pair of shorts. They can't believe anyone so skinny can be strong enough for any sport."

So what the heck is a Philadelphia boy doing running the Olympic Marathon for American Samoa, a group of six islands some 2,600 miles southwest of Honolulu?

It all goes back to 1969, when Fanelli, just out of high school, decided that he would some day be an Olympian. A 1:57 half-miler at Bishop McDevit High School in Glenside, Pa., Fanelli was inspired while watching the Mexico City Olympics that year. Jim Ryun, who won the silver medal at 1500 meters, became his athletic idol.

Gary Fanelli

"It's been my dream ever since," says Fanelli, "that and to live in Hawaii."

After moving to Honolulu last year, Fanelli was introduced to two sports association officials from American Samoa. "They told me they were looking for someone to coach and help develop track and field, and if I was qualified I could also participate in the Olympic Games," he explained. "I sent them a resume and they accepted me for the position."

On October 2, Fanelli, 37, will run the Olympic Marathon in Seoul as a Samoan.

Although a territory of the United States, American Samoa is permitted by the International Olympic Committee to have its own Olympic representation, just as Puerto Rico, another U.S. territory. The IOC is allowing American Samoa six athletes for Seoul. Five of the spots will be filled by boxers, wrestlers, or weightlifters. Fanelli gets the only track and field berth (which includes the marathon) this year, but the developmental program started by Fanelli will hopefully produce talent for future Olympics.

Fanelli made his first serious bid for an Olympic team berth in 1980. In the U.S. Olympic Marathon Trial in Buffalo that year, he went out fast and led for the first 15 miles. After hitting 10 miles in 49:23, his best 10-mile time ever, he extended his lead to 150 yards by 12 miles. The pack following him began to close as Fanelli reached the half-parathon mark in 1:04:39, a time he had never before run for that distance.

"If there can be a 'rabbit' in a marathon, Fanelli was it," Marc Bloom of The Punner magazine later wrote. "His cou ageous front-running allowed the contenders to relax a bit more, to feed off Fanelli and one another without so much concern for pace or competitive advantage."

The race was won by Tony Sandoval in 2:10:19. Fanelli finished 22nd in 2:16:49, bettering his previous best time of 2:18:20 in the 1979 New York City Marathon.

Why the suicidal pace? "President Carter had already announced that we were boycotting the Games in Moscow," Fanelli recalled. "So I went out and took the bull by the horns and set a blistering pace, the idea being, well, if we aren't going to the Games let's make this 'our' Olympic Games and see how fast we can run; see if we can come up with faster times here than they will run in Moscow.

"If there can be a 'rabbit' in a marathon, Fanelli was it."

- Marc Bloom

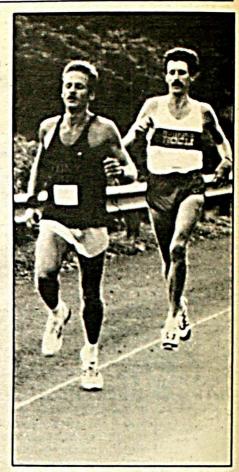

"The first three times were 2:10s. The winning time in Moscow was 2:11 something. So we ran faster and it gave us satisfaction and consolation. It was a PR (personal record) for me and I helped turn a lemon into lemonade, making the best of a bad situation. So I was happy and satisified."

Fanelli improved his marathon best to 2:14:16 with a third-place finish in the Montreal International Marathon later that year. He also ran his best 10K, a 29:16 in 1980. It was the following year that Fanelli decided to broaden his running pursuits to include "entertaining" — running in various costumes. "Everything I do is in the name of laughter," Fanelli was quoted early this year in a Sports Illustrated article. "When you laugh, you raise the positive vibrations of the world."

Until he moved to Hawaii, Fanelli operated a health food distribution business. In addition to picking up prize money here and there for serious racing, he receives appearance fees for his clowning. After the Olympics, Fanelli hopes to enter the real estate business in Hawaii. He also plans marriage to Connie Comiso, a Honolulu nurse and one of Hawaii's leading distaff runners.

To officially earn a place on the American Samoa Olympic team, Fanelli had to establish residency there six months in advance of the Olympics and had to win their Olympic marathon trial, a 10K race. He loafed through that in 32:20, winning by over five minutes in a field of about 30. "They don't have shoulders on the roads down there, so I had to continually jump on and off the road to avoid the traffic," Fanelli recalled, laughing. "I don't even know if it was 10 kilometers. They measured it with a jeep. But that victory gave me some credibility."

Perhaps too much credibility. Because he is able to win races there so easily, some Samoans apparently think Fanelli is some kind of running god and don't know how he can possibly lose in Seoul.

But Fanelli knows that he is not going to be in the fight up front. "I'll just try to run a good race," he said. "I have no business being in the lead pack. I've been racing long enough that I'm not going to let my emotions get the best of me and go out too fast."

Three weeks shy of his 38th birthday when he runs through the streets of Seoul, Fanelli should be one of the oldest marathon participants in this year's Olympics (New Zealander John Campbell, 39, will probably be the oldest). "I know I'm not as fast now as I was at age 30," he mused. "I don't recover as fast as I used to between workouts and I have to really work on my flexibility. But I'm not ready for the rocking chair yet." He takes inspiration from the fact that Carlos Lopes of Portugal was 37 when he won the last Olympic Marathon.

With nothing much else to do in his peaceful South Seas isle environment than train and daily watch Bud Greenspan's "Sixteen Days of Glory," about the Los Angeles Olympics, for added inspiration, Fanelli has been logging in 100-mile weeks and feels fit. "My primary goal is to run a 2:15," he said. 'My second goal is 2:20.

"The main thing is taking part."

Larry Stuart: Religious About the Javelin

by TERI INGRAM

thletics to me is what religion is to others," Larry Stuart says, and he has certainly been devout. Stuart has been throwing the javelin for 34 consecutive years, longer than any American, and has achieved success with the help of a lot of hard work.

"As you have more success, you need to work harder and harder to be competitive," Stuart adds, which some of us may find a little discouraging. What he means is this: since becoming a master he notes that he cannot throw as far with the same work-out techniques. What he did to throw his all-time best of 281-11 at age 32 only brings him around 220 at age 51.

"But don't get discouraged; javelin throwing is a hard event for a master ... and it helps to have an explosive arm." Easy enough for him to say. At 6-2, 210 lbs., he has the strength and weight to back up his statement.

Al Oerter once described discus throwing as "a 300 lb. man trying to do a pirouette," and the description is true of javelin throwing as well: it takes a combination of strength, speed and agility to achieve success.

Stuart has had his share of success. Born on October 19, 1937, he began javelin throwing at age 15, and also played high school football, where he was an all-conference end. In 1956, he graduated from Haddonfield, N.J. high school and joined the Marine Corps.

He continued throwing the javelin and, within two years, was good enough to become USMC champion and the rank fifth in the U.S. with a throw of 251-5. He also took a stab at the pole vault during this time, achieving a height of 12-3 with the old steel pole.

After the Marines in 1960, Stuart moved on to Santa Ana, Calif., Junior College. In 1961, he was ranked #1 in the U.S. and, in 1962, set a National JC record of 256-2, which stood for eight years. He also was an allconference football end and received football scholarships offers from Stanford, UCLA and USC.

"But I turned down the scholarship, deciding that the 1964 Olympic Games were more important at that time in my career," he said.

In 1963, he was again ranked #1 (267-3), but a pinched nerve in his lower back kept him out of the 1964 Olympic Trials. Despite recovering from the injury and throwing farther than anyone else before the Tokyo Games, he was not included on the U.S. team.

He went to USC and graduated in 1965 with a degree in marketing. He continued to throw and was again ranked #1 in 1967 with a throw of 274-5. But, in 1968, bad luck again intervened. Two weeks before the U.S. Olympic Trials, he underwent extensive oral surgery.

"It completely sapped my strength. I could barely throw 225 feet," he remembers.

Perhaps because of his Olympic disappointments, Stuart continued to throw and, at the age of 32, achieved a lifetime best of 281-11, which again ranked him #1 in the U.S. in 1971. In his open career, he competed in 13 national championships and won over 50 major meets.

Since becoming a master he has won 48 firsts and been defeated only once. He set an M40 AR in 1978 with a throw of 238-0. He set an M45 World Record at the age of 49 with a throw of 239-7. In 1987, he set an M50 World Record of 215-9. He later broke that record with a throw of 228-0.

But, alas, Stuart is human. He has had his share of injuries: collapsed arches in both feet, calcium deposits in his shoulders, and he has been bothered by an ulcerated disk in his back since 1964. He is stoic about such things, saying, "You just learn to cope with these types of injuries." Stuart has two children, both in college, and a very supportive wife, Jane. "Jane has never said a word except encouragement. She knows workouts are my life. There is always time to work out. If I didn't find time, I wouldn't have been so successful." Jane also helps keep him on track in terms of his diet. Although he doesn't follow any special diet, he says, "I eat well-balanced meals, thanks to my wife."

He currently is the Western States salesman for Truco Products. In his spare time, Stuart enjoys model railroading (in H.O. scale). He also enjoys friends, travel, and, of course, notoriety, saying "athletics is the most enriching part of my life." He considers his greatest achievement "being a tough competitor despite serious injuries," and "being nationally and world ranked."

Outside of sports, his most important achievements were winning the "Outstanding Marine" award and, from 1976-1982, the "Man of the Year" award from the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

He was recently inducted into the Mt. San Antonio Relays Hall of Fame, one of only 25 athletes to be so honored.

He only works out four days a week and does weight-training, which he considers "very important," in the offseason. His warm-up consists of an easy lap jog, stretching with the javelin, 6-10 100s and throwing the 6 lb. shot to warm-up his arm. After this, he does approximately 10 run-ups with the javelin.

His goals for the future are, of course, "to continue to break age records as long as my body is able."

Last words of advice? "Never throw

Larry Stuart, world record holder in the M50 iavelin.

two days before a competition. Allow the arm to have the most explosion possible. Mental toughness is the most important thing.

"Athletics is to me what religion is to others. It keeps my mind, body and attitude intact."

Barton, Filutze Win in Parkersburg Half

Athol Barton of Rockville, Md., and Barbara Filutze of Erie, Pa., collected $500 each for their masters firsts in the Parkersburg Homecoming Half-Marathon in Parkersburg, W. Va., on August 20.

Barton, who placed 18th of nearly 4000 finishers, ran 1:11:41, leaving second to Don Coffman (1:12:31) of Frankfort, Ky., and third to Web Loudat (1:14:14) of Albuquerque.

Jack Cago of East Springfield, Ohio took all of the fun out of the M55 contest with a 13-minute win in 1:26:43.

Filutze placed ninth woman with a 1:22:26, which clipped 14 minutes from the W40-and-over course record. Lesley Cens-McDowell (1:24:01) of Johnstown, Pa., was second, and Jane Buch (1:27:13) of Smithville, Ohio was third.

Peggy Drauglis of Columbus, Ohio won the W50 contest handily with a 1:49:34.

Winners overall with course records were Richard Kaitany (1:04:24) of Kenya, and Christine McMiken (1:14:24) of New Zealand.

Masters Rankings

In this issue are the 1987 rankings for the 8K, 15K and half-marathon. The rankings are compiled by TACSTATS/USA, the official long distance running record-keeping arm of The Athletics Congress.

At the request of TACSTATS, we are printing only the top ten performers in each five-year age division. A complete list of each distance, approximately 25-40 deep, is available from TACSTATS for $5. A complete set of all distances, enclosed in a three-ring binder with index tabs and an update service, is $35. Send to TACSTATS, 7745 S.W. 138 Terrace, Miami, FL 33158.

Only those performances which equal or better the time guidelines established by TACSTATS are included in the rankings. (The time guidelines are listed below.)

International Politics Shapes Our Sport

Reading Dick Slotkin's blast at the "bully-boys" who drove Zola Budd out of the Seoul Olympics (Why Don't They Leave Zola Budd Alone?) was great fun. Go get 'em, Dick! And God bless you, too.

Taking issue with Slotkin's sentiment probably will make some readers look at me cross-eyed, but what Dick says is not the whole story; not by a long shot. True, our sport would be the better if Budd had grown to be what she really wanted to be; a gifted athlete, able to compete whenever and wherever she wished. That Budd's been sidelined is, indeed, regrettable.

What's also regrettable is Slotkin's failure to draw the right conclusions from this sorry occurrence.

Lying at the heart of Dick's view-point is the belief that "anyone with two-thirds of a brain knows" that a "mixed-race South African Olympic team" could be an instrument to bring "South African hardliners just a bit closer to the 20th Century than all those sanctions have done." In short, Dick feels the suspension of the athletic federation of the Republic of South Africa and its effect on individual athletes is wrong: wrong on both moral and athletic grounds. Implicitly, Dick feels that apartheid is furthered rather than abated by the IAAF suspension of the Republic's federation.

Dick Slotkin's blast at the 'bully boys' who drove Zola Budd out of the Olympics...sounds wonderful. But it is naive...and misplaced.

Sorry, but this full-brained Special Assistant doesn't buy that at all. Slotkin's remarks reveal a naivete which, in my judgment, is probably specious and certainly will cause a repetition in the future of the grotesque mistakes that brought about Budd's sad withdrawal from the sport.

The hardheaded Dutchmen who Dick thinks would be moved away, even if just a bit, from apartheid by seeing a mixed-race South African Olympic team are too hard-headed to be at all motivated by such sweet sentiments. For that's not at all the reason that such Dutchmen would field such a team in the first place.

In pointing the culprits out for us,

Dick seems to know for sure who those culprits are and who they are not. He's certain Budd's not at fault. He's probably right about Zola.

But his failure to name Zola's managers and business agents as the chief culprits in the play is a serious omission. The very persons who were hired to advance Zola's interests seem to have intentionally steered her down a path where she was always testing the system. Her very own managers and handlers took a course of action which made certain that no one would ever forget that Zola was, and seemingly wished to be regarded as, a South African.

In doing so, Zola's true welfare as an athlete was totally disregarded. Why should anyone as smart as Dick Slotkin be surprised when "bully-boys," as he calls them, react predictably when someone thumbs their nose at them? First thing I learned when you're in a meadow where bulls are roaming, is this: hide your red handkerchief. Keeping Zola's origins and apparent national preference before the very people who were looking for a way to make her a cause celebre' was the same as waving red before a bull. As a knowledgeable bystander, it was always a source of wonderment to me that an athlete of Zola's quality was being given such poor advice.

But then, I have often been amazed at the myopia of South African agents and coaches when it comes to the ramifications of their actions on the international scene. Witness the brazen foolishness of Jan Fourie's agent sneaking Jan Fourie into a U.S. road race earlier this year, at the very time the very same agent was asking me to review Fourie's situation. The actions of Fourie's agent made it impossible to do something for Fourie. Witness attempts, which have come to my attention, to "rig" internal federation politics in African nations neighboring the Republic, with the result of making it difficult for me to accept credentials at face value.

People like me might have been able to do something for Zola if her managers and handlers weren't devoted to a political agenda which made them blind to the way a majority of the athletic federations of this planet feel about apartheid. People like Dick defend the view that South African athletes should be free to compete in all international athletic competition by pointing out the deficiencies of the governments of the athletic federations which are in the majority. In so defending, people like Dick seem to be hellbent into goading that majority to act in a way, once and for all, that shows they are not only a majority, but an unbridled one, at that. Such is what happened to Zola Budd.

As it was, I was finally asked to intervene. The request came from a stateside business person who really did care for Zola as a person and as an athlete. But by that time, the matter was out of hand. It was too late to do anything at all except watch and cry a little.

My knowledge of the situation doesn't come from what I read in the papers. My knowledge comes from working for and with the people who manage this sport, i.e. the athletic representatives of the world's almost 5 billion people, representatives who have lost all patience with and sympathy for a situation whose days, they feel, are numbered. My knowledge also comes from dealing with people who manage South African athletes. And it comes from dealing with the people who manage former South Africans such as Plaatjes, May, Johnson and Maree. (By the way, these latter four athletes - two whites, one "colored" and one black - are running, earning and not painting themselves or anyone else into a corner.)

The zeal that Dick Slotkin expresses sounds wonderful. It is an expression of his deep caring for this great sport and its fine people. But zealousness in situations such as the Zola Budd matter is quite misplaced.

In this complex world of ours, when you're outnumbered, you don't go it alone. What happens if you do, and you pick a fight, is that you end up with a bloody nose. If your goal is to mess up your face, then you've chosen the right course of action. But if what you want to accomplish is to make it possible for elite athletes to compete and to keep competing, then you must use different skills. It is those skills which Budd's people forgot or perhaps never learned to use. It is those skills which we at TAC/USA make paramount even when we are urged to take popular but counter-productive stances by friends of this sport.

Someday, the gifted journalists of the world like Dick Slotkin may stop and ask how come there's been no flap about Tjela, Plaatjes, Johnson, Maree or May. (Efforts were made to interfere, but without success.) Someday, thoughtful people like Dick Slotkin may stop and ask whether the best way to protect this sport is by promoting the myth that we are immune from the ebb and flow of the real (albeit ugly) world of politics and economics. Asserting that supposed immunity by shaking one's fist and screaming out loud: "Leave us alone!" makes for fine theatrics. But as a way to solve problems, it doesn't work.

Dick Slotkin's failure to grasp the essence of the matter made me sad. The nub of productive thinking about the international aspects of elite and representational competition is just this:

This sport doesn't shape international politics (cf. Slotkin's beliefs that a mixed South African Olympic team would have some political affect in South Africa). Rather the reverse is true: international politics shapes (and it always has shaped) this sport.

When one comes to terms with that ineluctable truth, then debacles such as the "retirement" of Zola Budd are possible to avoid. When one comes to terms with that polestar, the results are active careers for Mark Plaatjes and his colleagues. And for the record, TAC/USA, quietly and adroitly, made that happen.

JOHN POPPELL WRITES ABOUT CAPS"

June 14, 1988

Dear Dr. Frank:

It is not my intent to get in the middle of a debate on the merits of any product. However, I feel compelled to write because of some things I have seen printed in the National Masters News.

I became aware of your products and ordered them approximately 30 days ago. I have been using them at least that long, and am now on my second order. I suppose long before now, had the difference I noticed been psychological, it would have disappeared.

I am a masters sprinter, age 57, who has been the national 100- and 200-meter champion for the last two years. I attribute my moderate success not to any great talent but rather to a willingness to train hard. Because of my age and the fact that my training occurs in Florida where the climate is very warm and humid, I have constantly battled fatigue at the end of my workouts. It has made for very short days, early dinners, and almost a complete lack of energy for any social life. Since I have been taking your products, I have noticed an amazing change in my physical stamina, my ability to withstand the hard workouts my coach prescribes, and an unbelievable recovery from these workouts which allows me to enjoy many other things well past the time when I normally would be caved in and in bed. I don't know if RACE CAPS and ENDURO CAPS will do the same for others; but, as for me, I can state without hesitation it has been a delightful discovery.

Sincerely yours, J.S. Poppell

INTRODUCING XOBALINE", A NEW WINNER

Xobaline (Cobamamide) is the coenzyme form of vitamin B12. The Merck Index states "The coenzyme is the metabolically active form of Vitamin B12." Guyton's Textbook of Medical Physiology states "Vitamin B12 is an essential nutrient for all cells of the body, and growth of tissues in general is greatly depressed when this vitamin is lacking. This results from the fact that Vitamin B12 is required for synthesis of D.N.A., therefore, lack of this vitamin causes failure of nuclear maturation and division."

Athletes in Europe have started using Xobaline because of its anabolic effects. This is the most powerful new product I have found. I have made remarkable new gains with it and know you will like it.

Pagliano's Podiatric Pointers

nother condition which is becoming an up-and-comer in the field of veteran athletics is heel bursitis. We have all suffered from this in some degree or another over our running careers.

Heel bursitis is a bump of bone on the back of the heel. This is usually in the area where the Achilles' tendon attaches.

This condition is usually initiated by an ill-fitting shoe whose heel counter rubs up against the back of the heel causing an irritation and inflamma-

In this area there is a small bursae which sits between the Achilles' tendon and the heel bone. When this is irritated it becomes inflamed and swollen. Most athletes with a lick of sense will abandon the offending shoes, but most, in an attempt to save money, will continue along with the irritant shoe and aggravate an already bad condition.

Usually, the change to a non-irritating shoe is sufficient. If this does not relieve the situation, a heel cup may be attempted. The use of an orthoses for those who hyperpronate may be tried. If the condition persists, the use of an injectable antiinflammatory is recommended.

Other conservative methods include icing the area after workouts and, perhaps, the use of physical therapy, such as ultrasound. [

Racewalking: Improving Your Race Times

by VIISHA SEDLAK

Competitive racewalking is a technical as well as a speed and endurance event. I frequently hear from walkers who are frustrated over times that are no longer improving, and I have noticed that these "stuck" times occur at common plateaus: 31 to 34 minutes for 5K and mid-50's or mid-70's for 10K. When I meet with these walkers or review their videotapes, it becomes apparent that technique problems are limiting most of these walkers. When the technique is improved, the race times begin to drop

A walker can race only as fast as that walker's technique allows. The bentkneed, straight-hipped regular walkers will never walk a 50-minute 10K because the healthwalking style doesn't permit the rapid leg turnover that gives the racewalker such speed. Similarly, a stiff-hipped racewalker will find race times limited by the body's inflexibility; the elliptical hip motion permits a much more rapid turnover than does the simple back and forth swing of the legs under a rigid upper body.

Even arm movements affect the stride: many walkers who are converts from running retain the runner's forearm flip motion, where the forearm counterbalances the leg motion and the upper arm swings only moderately until the runner begins to sprint. The racewalker needs to swing the entire arm from the shoulder, like a sprinter, to counterbalance the more powerful hip and leg extension. Yet many racewalkers do not fully lift the upper arm behind the torso and thus restrict the extension of their stride.

There are many such biomechanical issues which are critical to fast racewalk performances as well as to injury prevention. When the walker corrects biomechanical movements, the race times improve, often immediately.

Runners rarely study their own biomechanics, yet they can continue to lower their race times as they develop greater strength and endurance through training. The walker has no flight phase so the development of pure propulsive power doesn't bring the same results of increased racing speed. If a walker flies faster through the air between contact with the ground, he is disqualified from the race! This limiting factor of having to maintain contact with the ground at all times is what makes walking such an intriguing sport and such a technical one.

What can you do if you feel you might need biomechanical improvement? Find a technically knowledgeable coach to assist you. If there is no one in your area, contact the American Racewalk Association, P.O. Box 18323, Boulder, CO 80308. The ARA provides coaching via video for a reasonable fee. Watching yourself on video is a tremendous help as you see many of your own errors. Watch the top walkers train and compete and learn from what you see. Talk to these walkers and ask their advice. Try to meet some of the established masters of the event, like Ron Laird, Frank Alongi, and Bruce MacDonald. These three gentlemen and other top competitors from past years, are generous with their time and training tips and have helped many beginners become superb competitors themselves.

Without biomechanical study and correction, a racewalker will hit a plateau in performance and can stay there indefinitely. The walker should train only as fast as the proper technique will allow; once he or she starts training and racing with poor biomechanics, these bad habits are reinforced. Soon there will be no further improvement in times. Jumpers and throwers learned this lesson decades ago and focus their attention on their technique. Racewalkers who do the same will improve, those who don't, won't.

Viisha Sedlak won two gold medals (in the 5K and 10K racewalks) at the VII World Veterans Games in Melbourne last year, and is the current U.S. National 5K and 10K W35 champion. This article is an excerpt from her forthcoming book, The Complete Book of Racewalking.

Scoring The Decathlon

by REX HARVEY

Official scoring for the 1988 National Masters Decathlon was done on the 1985 IAAF Tables for all competitors up to age 60, and on the WAVA Scoring Tables for those 60 and over. The heptathlon was scored on the WAVA Tables. This is probably the last time that these scoring methods will be used because the Masters Age-Factoring Tables are due out soon from the WAVA Committeees of Al Sheahen and Rodney Charnock.

Age-factoring will be a huge improvement in the multi-events because it will allow direct comparison between all age groups in a competition and will allow the results of older multi-eventers to be compared with those of open competitors. If this meet had been age-factored, the overall winner would have been Phil

Mulkey, M55, with a good 7827 points. This age-factored score is analogous to the scores that open decathletes would be scoring in prime. Note that the real equivalent of this age-factored score would have put Mulkey in this year's Olympic Trials.

Second would have been Gary Miller, M50, with 7708, and third, Rex Harvey, M40, with 7337. Fourth would have been Dan Bulkley, M70, 6966; fifth Ed Oleata, M50, 6831; and sixth, Henry Hopkins, M45, 6793.

Note that these preliminary age-factors seem to do a good job because they do not concentrate winners in any particular age group or groups. Gary Miller's excellent decathlon performance of 6031 earlier this year at Cal State-Los Angeles age-factors to 8604 points and vicariously would have put him on this year's U.S. Olympic team. [].

Updated Pentathlon Scores - 1985 Tables

by GARY D. MILLER

In Des Moines, Iowa 1986, the multi-event athletes voted, unanimously, to update Peter Mundle's records for combined events from the 1962 IAAF tables to the new 1985 tables.

Rex Harvey volunteered to do the decathlon and I volunteered to do the pentathlon. I received enormous help from Pete Mundle. Many scores had lost their subdiscipline marks; therefore, letters went out, etc. to try and recapture those marks. Bill Forsyth was very helpful. One of his hobbies seems to be keeping tabs on pentathlon results.

The following list, except for Dr. Tilman's and Schallau's scores, is an updated World and American Pentathlon best list. If you have additions or corrections, please contact me at the following address: Gary D. Miller, 1740 Grandview Avenue, Glendale, CA 91201.

Multi-Eventers Compete in National Masters Decathlon Championships in Los Angeles

by REX HARVEY

A good turnout of 46 men and three women from 18 states tested their skills over the two days of competition at the excellent facility at California State University-Los Angeles for the 1988 TAC National Masters Decathlon/Heptathlon Championships, July 8-9.

There was a very spirited competition in the large M30-34 group with Lee Webb winning over last year's champion, Bill Lawson. Mark Salzman won the M35 division from first-time masters competitor Gary Sarell and seasoned masters competitor Mike Davis.

Rex Harvey won the M40 division with an age-42 American record. Long-time competitor Henry Hopkins won the M45 title, pushed by second-place Tom Cronan.

Gary Miller, who recently broke the M50-54 world record with 6031 points on this same track, won his division, with Ed Oleata a solid second. Phil Mulkey won the M55 contest (and the whole meet had it been age-factored). Second place was Dave Douglass, bleary-eyed after a 30-hour flight from Europe.

Dick Nordquist, Jock Jocoy, and

SIGNATURE OF RUNNER

Ted Ensslin had their usual close M60 competition, pushing each other on both days, with Nordquist coming out on top. Dr. Arturo Ricciardi, a relative newcomer to multi-events, won the M65 group for the first time. Boo Morcom, past champion, was injured and, missing the first day, competed on the second day only.

Dan Bulkley, M70, had amazing performances in the runs. His 5:55.5 1500 was the fastest age-graded race of the entire meet. Past winner Ham Morningstar did not complete the competition because of an injury.

Three women competed in the heptathlon, each winning in her age group. Entrants in this event should increase when ex-pentathletes/heptathletes reach submaster and masters ages. Newcomer to multi-events Barbara Stewart, W45, got a lot of good advice from two of the world's best, Phil Raschker, W40, and Crystal Miller, W50.

MASTERS TRACK & FIELD REPORT

by JERRY ALAN DONLEY Chairman, TAC Masters Track & Field Committee

1988 TAC Convention Next Month

he TAC/USA National Convention is upon us, starting November 28 in Phoenix, Arizona.

It is at these conventions that action is taken, rules are made, and organization undertaken. Many decisions require votes, and this is done by those delegates present and participating at the convention. They are your representatives, and their actions will be binding.

At the risk of establishing a schedule that cannot be kept, or that will have to be revised at the last minute, I am publishing a schedule of the matters that will be reviewed at this convention. It will be a heavy agenda, as much work needs to be done. The purpose of this publication is to let everyone know what the Committee is doing and on what matters decisions will be made. If you are a masters delegate, I hope this will give you a little advance guidance in planning your time.

-Team Manager Guidelines-

At the 1987 TAC Convention in Honolulu, National Masters T & F Chairman Jerry Donley appointed a subcommittee to review how a U.S. team manager should be selected for the World Veterans Championships, and what his/her duties should be.

Another subcommittee was formed to propose what the relay-selection standards should be.

Here are the reports:

Selection of Team Manager:

- 1. Applicants apply to TAC Masters Chairman after publication of position opening in the National Masters News.
- 2. Criteria to be met for applicants:
 - A. Coach or
 - B. Meet Director or
 - C. Experience in Track & Field Administration.
 - D. Non-competitor.
 - E. Host-country language capability would be helpful.
- 3. Vote at National Championships in the year previous to WAVA competition.

Duties of Team Manager:

1. Handle competition complaints. protests, and problems related to competition only.

- 2. Hold an initial meeting for any general announcements, to publicize relay selectors, and to let competitors know where and when you will be on a daily basis.
- 3. Appoint relay selectors in each age group.
- 4. Know chain of command and organization at the competition and who to contact with competition pro-
- 5. Be prepared to pass off field problems, illness, injury, and accidents to local authorities. Know who to contact - police, medical, American Consul - and their phone numbers.
- 6. Be on site at the predetermined time and place daily for at least six hours.
- 7. Submit relay teams names and fees to meet director before deadline.
- 8. Appoint a person to handle offsite team competition and explain to competitors their status in relation to that team, e.g., cross-country, marathon, road walk.

Submitted by: Bruce Springbett, Ron Salvio, Tom Sturak.

Relay Guideline and Selection Process:

1. Team Manager will appoint one person in each age group to select all relay teams.

National Masters News

- 2. Everyone is to stay in his/her age group as a general rule.
- 3. Factors in determining members of teams in order of importance:

A. 4 x 100

- 1) Times in 100 and 200 meters during games.
- 2) High hurdlers who have previous 100 meter times.
- 3) Times in multi-events.
- 4) Injuries

B. 4 x 400

- 1) Times in 400 meters during
- 2) Times in Intermediate Hurdles.
- 3) 800-meter participants.
- 4) Injuries.
- 4. Selectors will turn in team members' names to team manager along with fees applicable.

Transportable Vaulting Pole

Jim Vernon uses a vaulting pole which comes apart in the middle and can be carried in a ski bag, which makes for relatively hassle-free transportation on airplanes, taxis, or buses and convenience in hotel elevators. After recent rulings there appears to be no more doubt about legality for such poles. For reasons which he considers important, Jim uses a pole which not only comes apart but is also crooked. However, he says it would be possible to construct a straight pole which comes apart using the same method if the crooked feature is not wanted. This convenience is obtained at the cost of a weight penalty of about one pound.

Jim will share his method of manufacture with anyone who might be inclined to try it and has composed a seven-page set of instructions which he would give at no cost to anyone who asks for it and sends a stamped self addressed envelope to his address at 1147 W. Rowland Ave., West Covina, CA 91790. [

Montana Masters Meet Draws 99 to Bozeman

by JERRY WOJCIK

The 10th Montana Masters Track and Field Championships in Bozeman, August 12-13, drew 99 participants, 55 of whom won gold, silver, and bronze medals using performance standards rather than places. Twenty-two athletes also achieved the U.S. Masters Standards of Excellence.

Notable performances included M45 Tom Gage's 196-3 in the hammer throw; M40 Richard Tucker's 1:58.9 800; W75 Polly Clarke's 17.6 100 and

Ninety-two-year-old Herb Kirk competed in his ninth Montana Masters Meet, Bozeman, August 12-13. He's shown here joking with starter Dale Kennedy. Photo from Mike Carignan 38.8 200; and fine 1500s by M35 Terry Boos (4:11.4), M55 Bill Foulk (4:49.9), M60 Bill McChesney (5:04.0), and M70 Al Funk (6:03.6).

Edna Berg, W70, became the only athlete to participate in all ten championships, while 92-year-old Herb Kirk made his ninth.

The meet was held at the fine facility at Montana State University.

Polly Clarke, 78, TAC's female masters athleteof-the-year in 1985, returned to masters action after a two-year layoff at the Montana Masters Meet in Bozeman, August 12-13. Clarke set age-78 WRs in the 100 (17.6), 200 (38.8) and Photo from Mike Carignan 400 (96.7).

or someone who describes herself as "a pretty old woman who never considered herself an athlete," Gerry Davidson has some very impressive athletic credentials.

She is the national W65-69 record holder for 5K (24:27), 15K (1:17:31) and 25K (2:10:56) and age-66 American record holder for 20K (1:46:28). She won four gold medals each time she attended the National TAC Masters Track and Field Championships (1984 and 1987) and brought back a silver medal (5000) and bronze medal (800) from the World Veterans Track and Field Championships this past November in Melbourne, Australia.

A former tennis player, Davidson began running when she moved to Fallbrook, Calif., 11 years ago "to counteract some effects of a fairly sedentary lifestyle - headaches, weight problems and low energy level." In addition to the physical advantages she has derived from running, Davidson found that "there are so many psychological and social benefits. It's a good ego booster to be able to run, to be able to win division awards, and to be a part of a positive activity enjoyed by so many others. The whole social setting is a happy one, and we've met so many wonderful people," says Davidson.

On competition, Davidson admits, "After my first competition, the 1979 L'eggs 10K, I was hooked!" Training brought down her initial 10K time of 59:50 to her PR of 48:26 in 1983 at age 62. She added track competition to her schedule in 1983 and holds San Diego TC records for women ages 60-69 for 100 (19.08), 200 (39.37), 400 (87.7), 800 (3:21.68), 1500 (6:48.35) and 5,000 (24:18.90) on the track.

Davidson's training consists of running 40-45 miles per week, with one day of speed work (6-8 400s, more when training for track), one day of hill intervals or mile pick ups, plus one long run up to 20 miles. She says, "Since my early 'jogging' days, I have increased the intensity and variety of my program, trying to gear it toward the particular upcoming event."

When asked about her favorite event, Davidson replied, "I really like the 5, 8, and 10Ks, and running track has added a new excitement. But the marathon is the ultimate challenge for me."

The busy grandmother lists her other hobbies as swimming, bicycling, skiing, gardening, and playing the piano and bridge.

Davidson's husband, Bob, has wholeheartedly supported his wife's athletic endeavors from the very beginning. Her involvement probably has something to do with his entrance into competition as a racewalker last year, and now he competes in many of the same events as Gerry, including the TAC National Track and Field Championships and the World Veterans Championships last year. The two were recently in a television commercial about nutrition for active seniors.

Davidson says, "I think the most fun I've had was at the Paramount Bob entered the racewalk, and I ran with my son Norm and grandson Scotty, age 7 months, pushed by his father in the baby jogger."

As for the future, Davidson, who turned 67 on March 12, says her goals are "to stay ahead of last year's times, or even improve. I'll no doubt run all my favorite local races, some track competition, and run another marathon." These are high goals for a lady who "never considered herself an athlete" but goals that are certainly within her reach.

Scott First Master in Pikes Peak Marathon

Gail LaDage Scott, W40, of Durango, Colo., did something few 40-and-over women runners have ever done in a "name" race - she had the best time of all masters runners, men and women, with a 4:32:21 in the Pikes Peak Marathon (26.8 miles), in Manitou Springs, Colo., on August 21. Her time was good enough for secondwoman overall.

First men's master was Brad Smith, M40, of Boulder, Colo., who finished in 4:35:33,, just ten seconds ahead of Jeff Tarbert, M40, of Colorado Springs.

Winners of the marathon were Matthew Carpenter (3:38:05) and Linda Quinlinsk (4:29:59).

On the day before, in the more popular Ascent race (13.4 miles), Steve Mahleu, 41, of Albuquerque far outdistanced the masters field with a 2:28:56 finish. Mary Wood, 43, of Montrose, Colo., was the W40-andover leader in 3:15:07.

Elliot Scott, 24, won the open race in 2:11:10, and Lynn Brown, 28, was first woman with a 2:48:39.

Ed Sower, 72, of Yuma, who finished third M70 (5:37:15) in the Ascent, came back for the marathon to win his division in 6:41:56. In 1987, Sower became the first person over-70 to complete Hawaii's Ironman Triathlon within the 17-hour cutoff time.

tinue as the officials allowed six throws for everyone - against the rules. I protested, to no avail.

The sector used for submasters discus competition is supposed to be the same (40-degrees) as for open competition. But the discus officials used the masters 60-degree sector - against the rules.

At each event, people came to the officials with no documentation and added their names to the list of competitors. At the National meet, a final deadline should be at least a week before the meet. People should not come to the meet, see who's there, and then enter where they think they'll do well.

Competitors with children should control them. Trying to throw the hammer with small children yelling right behind the screen does not help.

The time and location of the national meet should be considered. The heat and humidity factor in Florida made competition in the field events tough. We are inviting disaster, especially in the older age groups. Someone is going to die out there.

Please understand I will come to 10K. We were a competing family these meets for as long as I live, but I'd like to see them run better. The National meet, over the years, has been quite good. Let's work to make it great.

NEW INDOOR COORDINATOR

I recently agreed to assume the position, previously held by Ron Salvio, of National Masters Indoor Meet Coordinator.

It is with much regret that the Masters T&F Committee sees Ron leave this position. He has done much for the program during the past several years, including hosting the 1984 National Indoor Championships at Princeton University. However, Ron assures me he can now be more effective or a concerned (and vocal) masters participant. I am certain the masters program will hear Ron's concerns, and probably see him display his interest as a national office after a sufficient time has passed. Ron was the first person I met in masters track and field, and I subsequently joined the Shore Athletic Club, and most recently the Merrill Lynch AC, because of him. Therefore,

Clarke, Utes Win Midwest Masters Age-Graded 10K

by HOWARD STRASSENBURG

Despite a 90/90 (temperature and humidity), 70 runners from four states competed in the first Midwest Masters Age Graded 10K Championship Road Race, held on August 13 in conjunction with the 51st annual Gladiolus Festival at Momence, Illinois.

A total of $2000 was awarded to the top ten women and top ten men. Warren Utes, 68, of Chicago was awarded first place money, $250, with an actual time of 39:36, and an adjusted time of 27:36. Second place money, $150, went to Dorse Dubois of San Antonio, Texas, M75, with a 50:15 actual, and a net 28:15.

The top women stole the show with Anne Clarke, W75, of Carroll Stream, Ill., winning the first place money, with an actual time of 1:04:28 and an adjusted time of 28:43. Algine Williams, W70, of Park Forest, Ill., took second place with a time of 56:31.4 and a net time of 30:46.4.

The first five places in both the women's and men's age-graded times came from five different age brackets. It is a compliment to the apparent fairness of the Masters of Excellence Chart from which the time handicaps for the race were derived. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place Championship medals were awarded in all age brackets.

The race was well received by the participants, prompting one runner to note, "This race was long overdue, keep up the good work."

Women Defeat Masters Men in Mythical Meet

If the winning marks in the 1988 TAC National Masters Track and Field Championships are compared to the winning marks in the 1988 U.S. Women's Olympic Trials, the women win, 6-2, in the eight events where conditions were virtually the same.

If the events are scored like a dual meet (1st-5 points; 2nd-3 points; 3rd-1 point), the women outscore the masters men, 57-15.

The caliber of competition between masters men and younger women is normally very close. While abilities differ depending on the event, experts say a 42-year-old man is generally the athletic equivalent of a woman in her prime. Age-graded tables show a masters male can generally hold his own with a woman 15 years younger.

Perhaps because of the Olympics, the women dominated this year's "dual meet."

The nine-year totals are now: events: masters men 45, open women 42. Points: open women 420½, masters men 362½.

Masters Health and Fitness

by ALFRED MORRIS, Ph.D., F.A.C.S.M.

Comparing Running with Different Aerobic Exercises

Due to the recent interest in cross training (regularly performing different modes of exercise, such as swimming, cycling, and aerobic dancing), many people ask, How does each of these alternate aerobic activities compare with running or walking? This is a logical question, because time is a valuable commodity. As a wise exerciser, you can get the maximum investment for the time and effort you spend at your fitness activities.

Walking vs. Running. Walking and running are the easiest activities to compare because you can measure their distance and time accurately. Essentially, you burn 100 calories per each mile you walk or run. Of course, body size, fitness level, and intensity of effort all must be taken into account to determine the exact caloric expenditure. But, with this as a baseline, you can compare and contrast other fitness activities with walking and running.

Walking and running strengthen the muscles in your lower back and legs, but do little or nothing to develop your upper body and quadricaps (the muscles in front of your thighs).

Biking vs. Running. In equating the energy expenditure of cycling with running or walking, you must consider the terrain, wind, and weather. All things being equal, a cyclist on a level surface with little or no wind or rain may be able to cover approximately three miles using the same effort a runner uses for one mile. So the ratio of cycling to running is abount 3:1, as long as intensity is the same for both activities. That is, if you run at 75% of your maximum effort, try to cycle at the same intensity. Therefore, if you run two miles a day and then switch to cycling, you will need to cycle six to seven miles a day for a similar workout.

Cycling also strengthens the muscles in your legs. It is a good complement to running because it strengthens your quadriceps. Some athletic injuries develop because of muscle imbalances.

For example, some runners develop knee problems because their hamstrings become much stronger than their quadriceps. However, if you alternate cycling with running or walking you will keep your muscles balanced and working together. Other people with knee problems can't run because it is too stressful on the knee, but cycling is OK for them.

Swimming vs. Running. Unlike running, walking, and cycling, vigorous swimming can provide a challenge to almost all your muscles, while also being an excellent conditioner for your heart and vascular system. And, researchers have found that swimmers are injured less often than runners and cyclists.

If you examine swim races and comparable distances in running, you will note a 1:4 ratio. That is, you must swim approximately 100 meters to equal 400 meters of running. Therefore, if you run two miles each day, you need to swim one-half mile. Finally, in order to compare swimming and running, you must do them at the same intensity.

Remember too, that swimming tones muscles all over the body, while walking and running work only the lower body. So, even if your heart and lungs can take a comparable swimming workout, your arms and upper back may not be prepared. Some people cannot run because it aggravates their back; swimming, however, may not hurt them.

Cross-Country Skiing vs. Running.
It is easy to compare cross-country skiing and running, because they take about the same effort and time to cover the same distance. If you are proficient in both activities, one mile of cross-country skiing is equal to one mile of running. Snow, terrain, and skill greatly affect a skier, just as hills adversely affect a runner.

As in swimming, you will work your upper body when you cross-country ski. So, just because you expend similar amounts of energy doing both exercises, you can't change immediately from running to cross-country skiing. If you do, your upper body will become sore quickly. Some people with arthritis who cannot run or walk easily can cross-country ski, because it is less stressful to their joints.

Rowing vs. Running. Since there are so few rowing events, it is difficult to compare them to running. But Olympic rowing events show that the 2,000-meter event takes about as long to complete as 1,000 meters of running. So a 2:1 ratio can be made of rowing to running. Again, environmental factors, such as wind and water turbulence, will greatly affect a rower.

Rowing strengthens muscles all over the body — even more than swimming does. It develops the quadriceps, back, abdomen, and upper body.

Aerobic Dancing vs. Running. The formula for determining the benefits of aerobic dancing follows the same reasoning as above. If the aerobic phase (after the warm-up and before the cool-down) is 30 to 40 minutes, you can equate this with running a certain distance in that time. So 30 minutes of aerobic dancing equals about three miles of running at the same intensity (again, about three 10-minute miles).

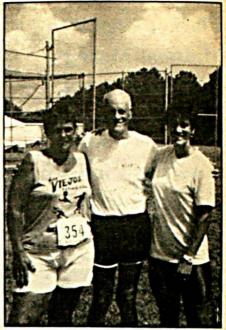

The muscles you work during aerobic dancing depend on the routine. Ideally, you can work almost every major muscle group.

Exercising Indoors. After consideration of the above activities, you may wish to compare these sports with similar activities performed in a gym or at home. For example, how does using a stationary bike or rowing machine compare to walking or running outdoors?

It is difficult to compare indoor exercise modes to their outdoor counterparts, since more variables enter the picture. For example, how much resistance is set on the bike or rowing machine? Also, the cycling or rowing rate per minute is a key factor. Try cycling at about 60 to 80 revolutions per minute, while rowing at a rate of 25-35 strokes per minute.

In indoor cycling, if you perform at the same intensity level (you'll know this by checking your heart rate while exercising), you could cover approximately six to seven miles of equivalent outdoor cycling.

Start Out Slowly. Remember, if you're just beginning to work out at a new sport, begin gradually and slowly build to longer durations and higher intensities. It also might be wise to alternate walking or running with other aerobic sports until you find the activity that suits you best.

In fact, because different activities develop different muscles in a specific fashion, it is best to vary your aerobic sports. This reduces you potential for injury and helps prevent undue muscle soreness that can discourage a beginning exerciser.

Designing Your Exercise Program. The American College of Sports Medicine suggests that all adults work out three to four times a week for 30 to 35 minutes at 60% to 90% of their maximum heart rate. If you are a woman or a sedentary man, your maximum heart rate equals 220 minus your age. If you are a fit man, subtract one-half of your age from 205.

Walking or running two to three miles (or an equivalent) every other day at a brisk pace can condition your cardiovascular system.

The table on this page compares different aerobic activities and awards aerobic points for each activity. Try to total as least eight to 10 aerobic points each week. This will translate to two to four points for each of your three to four exercise periods. You can alternate or mix and match different activities.

In sum, pick any activity that you enjoy and will continue doing. Any activity is better than just sitting and being a "couch potato."

ALTERNATION OF THE PARTY OF THE

International Scene

by JACQUES SERRUYS
President of WIGAL

Korea to Host Final WIGAL Championships

he 21st World Veterans Long Distance Running Championships will be held in Kyong-Su, Korea on October 8-9. It will be the last world championships organized by the World Association of Veteran Long Distance Runners, known as WIGAL.

WIGAL organized its first edition in 1968 under the leadership of the late founders Arthur Lambert and Dr. Ernst Van Aaken. Mainrad Nagele and, later, Bryan Doughty, Hideo Okada and Jacques Serruys helped the organization grow.

In 1975, the World Association of Veteran Athletes (WAVA) under the leadership of Don Farquharson, staged the first World Veterans Track and Field Championships in Toronto.

Thus, two world organizations, each with its own point of view, but with many of the same participants, pursued their own programs.

A new phase in the evolution of veterans athletics occured in 1984 when the International Amateur Athletics Federation (IAAF) proposed forming one veterans organization, combining the capabilities of WIGAL, WAVA and IAAF.

WIGAL had the support of WAVA in the negotiations, with WIGAL's goal being the recognition of the veterans movement by IAAF. The next step was the establishment of an IAAF Veterans Committee, which included WIGAL representatives Clem Green, Jacques Serruys and Barry Shaw.

In 1986 at the WIGAL Championships in Vancouver, the WIGAL General Assembly accepted the principle of uniting. The confirmation was made in 1987 during the WIGAL General Assembly in Netanya, Israel. The 21st Championships in Korea will thus be the last world race organized by WIGAL. WAVA and WIGAL will now combine into one world veteran organization under the name of WAVA with the support of IAAF.

Next year, WAVA will stage the World Veterans 10K and Marathon Championships in Eugene, Oregon, U.S.A. The value of a title "World Veteran Champion" will certainly be increased.

The decision to unite is not the end of IGAL. There will be no further world or regional WIGAL championships, but, in each country, IGAL can organize local veterans events. For example, IGAL Germany, founded in 1962, with over 1000 members, will remain and will spread the original ideas of WIGAL.

In Europe, the European Veteran Athletic Association (EVAA) will have a Road Racing Committee on which IGAL will be represented, in addition to a Track & Field Committee.

British Half-Marathon Championships

by MARTIN DUFF of Athletics
Weekly

The 1988 British Half-Marathon Championships were held in Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire, August 21. With last year's winner, Mike Hurd, not defending, and other top veterans sidelined through injury, the favorites for the M40 title were Shel Cowles, runner-up last year, and National Cross-Country runner-up Colin Youngson.

This event being one of the few money races on the U.K. calendar, Youngson had to score to pay for his fare from Aberdeen. The cash prizes, though, were spread throughout the age groups, with British promoters opting to give prizes in each age category rather than through some artificial percentage system.

Cowles and Hurd were with the leading group throughout, joined early by Brian O'Neill, Taff Davies, and Les Davis. By five miles on this far-fromeasy course (although Hurd ran 65:06 in ideal conditions last year), Cowles, O'Neill, and Youngson were clear in 25:30 with Davis and Davies, M45 and M50 leaders, a few seconds adrift, and Derek Wood leading the M55s in 27:30. Cowles made his effort at 7½ miles and by 8 miles had begun to open daylight on Youngson, with O'Neill tailing off. Cowles, never comfortable, stretched his margin by 60 yards, winning in 68:30.

Perhaps the best age-graded time was 78:20 by Eddie Kirkup in the M60s.

Melbourne marathon winner Anne Roden, who has donned a British vest this year in the open European Marathon Cup, looked a certain winner all the way but had to pull out all the stops to keep out 1987 winner Bronwyn Cardy by the finish (79:25 to 79:30). Peggy Fletcher's W55 93:35 was particularly noteworthy.

Clarence Ray, of Detroit, who missed the U.S. Nationals in Florida three weeks earlier, defeated South Carolina's Thad Bell, the reigning M40 world 100-meter champion, 11.27 to 11.47. Bell evened the score in the 200, 22.7 to 23.0.

Another Michigander, Glennie Johnson, edged Canada's Harold Morioka in the M45 100, (11.57/11.81), 200 (23.53/24.14), and 400 (51.18/51.93).

New York's Konrad Boas ran 94.95 to break his own 3-week-old M85 400 world record of 95.52.

Canada's Ray Tucker won the M40 800 (1:58.14) and 1500 (4:09.63), while Byron Fike won the 100, 200, 400, 800, 1500, and 5K walk in the M80 bracket.

North Carolina's Jim Law won all three M60 sprints, and New Hampshire's Archie Messenger captured the M65 400, 800, and 1500.

The 5K walk was the most exciting event of the meet when Jan Roos, 50, turned in a world M50 record of 23:22.54. Roos was named athlete-of-the-meet.

Two U.S. women, Ruth Leff, W60 (31:39) and LaVonne Hottensmith, W65 (31:42), each set U.S. age-group records in the 5K walk.

A 35-pound weight throw drew 24 contestants, including three women, ranging from age 40 to 75. Michigan's Continued on page 25

Facilities Being Readied

by TOM JORDAN AND BARBARA KOUSKY

ith just nine months until the opening of the VIII World Veterans Championships, work on the various venues in Eugene and Springfield is progressing well. At Hayward Field, the primary track facility, construction of an on-site weight room is nearing completion, as is a 4-lane, 200-meter warmup track adjacent to Hayward's 400-meter oval. The warmup facility is connected to the main track by a 100-meter synthetic straightaway.

At Silke Field, the second facility, completely new synthetic runways have been completed for the long jump, triple jump, javelin, high jump, and pole vault. New shot and discus rings are being installed as well. The track has been resurfaced on the curves and completly restriped.

The non-stadia event courses are taking shape, with a flat, fast marathon route developed on the bike paths along the Willamette River, virtually free from all auto traffic. The walk courses will be the same ones used successfully for the 1980 Olympic Trials and 1986 TAC Championships. The inaugural World Veterans Championships 10K Road Race will start and finish in downtown Eugene, and be run during the cool of the evening on Thursday, July 27. The cross-country course is a challenging mixture of U.S. and international styles, with varied terrain and footing.

Housing reservations are nearing 3000 already, and it is highly recommended that athletes planning to come to Eugene for the Championships send in their housing reservations forms as soon as possible, even if still undecided about exact competition events. If you are traveling to Eugene by air, the official travel agency, Adventure in Travel, can arrange for 5% off the lowest discounted fares on United Airlines. Within the continental U.S., call toll-free 800/545-5477 and ask for Sandy. From other countries, telephone 503/484-0600 or fax 503/345-6587 for further information.

A reminder: American competitors will need to produce a current 1989 TAC card in order to compete: the World Veterans Championships is sanctioned by The Athletics Congress of the USA.

Some entrants have misunderstood the competition schedule (July NMN). The "1SAT" and "2SAT" refers to the first Saturday of competition and the second Saturday of competition. It does not in any way refer to the venue of competition. That determination will be made when we see just exactly how many entries we have for each event. Same of course for "1SUN" and "2SUN", etc.

With just nine months to go, the time has come for serious training, and what better way to prepare for "The Worlds" than to wear an "In Training For the World Veterans Championships" T-shirt. (See the ad in this issue of NMN.) See you in Eugene!

Report from Britain

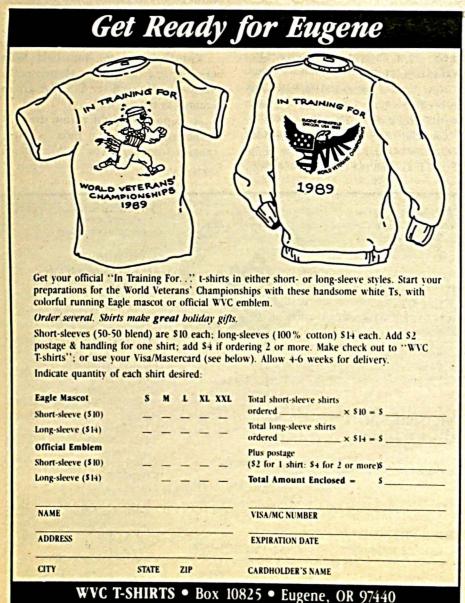

by ALASTAIR AITKEN

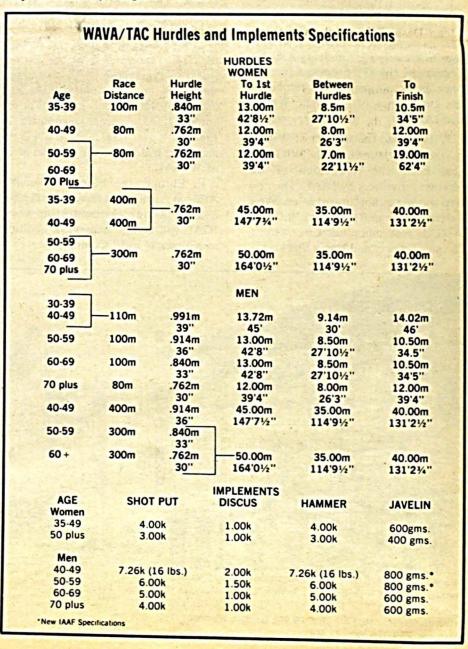

Ron Bell of Wrexam, who shattered the world masters mile record (4:12.58) in the U.S. Nationals in August was in fine form on his return, winning the veterans prize in the Cardiff Butetown Mile in 4:21 on August 29.

In the Veterans Athletic Club Championships, Jack Searle equaled his M80 British high jump record with a 1.05 (3-51/4).

Alun Roper was the winner of the British Veterans 10 Mile Championships at Oswestry, August 7, in 52:57 but had a tough battle with Dic Evans, a fellow Welshman, who came second in 53:09. Both went through five miles in 25:39. First M50 was Taff Davies in 55:47, and Bronwyn Cardy, W35, was first woman in 61:43.

Eddy Kirkup was first M60 in the Rother Half-Marathon in 79:33, July 27. Mike Hurd, M40, won the Grove 6 Mile Road Race outright in 30:15, August 6. First over-50 runner was 57-year-old Mike Barratt in 34:15.

Heat, Athletes Hit Record Levels in Empire State Games

from BARBARA STEWART and PAUL T. MURPHY

New York State submasters and masters in the Empire State Games in Dewitt on August 5-6 were challenged by oppressively humid temperatures in the high 90s, but beat the heat by setting 21 women's and 34 men's meet records. Heading the list of record-holders:

Rudy Valentine (5 golds, 5 records) set the M65 record for the 100 (13.0); 200 (27.7); 400 (62.8); and 300H (50.1); and was part of the record-setting 4x100 M50+ NYC team.

Ed Lukens (4 golds, 2 records), much recovered from his tram accident in Melbourne, bounced back to take the M65 high jump (1.32/4-4) and long jump (4.67/15-3¾), giving him the most ESG records (9) currently held by a masters athlete.

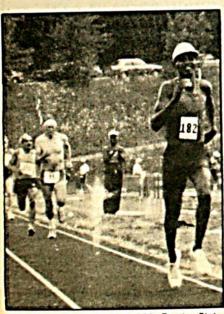

Perennial crowd favorite Elmer Shaw, M70, won five golds and set three records hammer (40.54/133-0); discus (38.36/125-10); and with the M70-79 winning 4x100 relay team.

Barbara Stewart (4 golds, 4 records) now holds seven current ESG records in the W45 division, after records in the hammer (19.74/64-9); 80H (17.1); high jump (.86/2-10); and 400H (1:39.1).

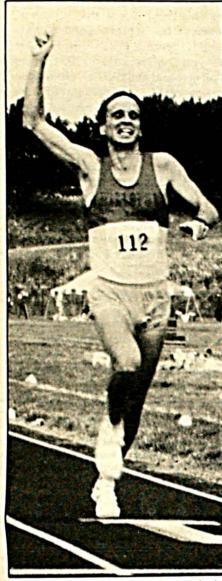

Joan Dash, W55, easily won three golds with three records: discus (20.46/67-1); javelin (24.88/81-7); and shot put (9.09/29-10).

Susan Compton displayed speed, racing savvy, and remarkable endurance in winning the W40 10,000, 5000, 1500, and 800. Helen Bueme, W55, was the only woman to capture five golds, winning the 100, 200, 400, 800, and 1500.

In a major upset in the M50 division, Tom Fondy of Syracuse won the 100 (12.3), leaving Haig Bohigian second and Cliff Pauling third. However, Pauling took the gold in the 200 (25.7) and 400 (57.0).

by ELLIOTT DENMAN

ASBURY PARK, N.J. — Larry Olsen confesses to an addiction. He sees no possible way to get himself unhooked.

Then again, he takes a good look at some of the things other folks are addicted to and he begins to realize that his chocolate chip cookie habit isn't the most serious affliction in the world.

Nowhere in the good book are chocolate chip cookies listed as recommended fuel for long-distance runners. But somehow Olsen has managed to overcome. Heaping dishes of spaghetti with meat sauce are a primary antidote. And hearty doses of pavement-pounding in the vicinity of his Millis, Mass., home keep him lean and mean, trim and fit.

Subject to ratification, he may be the leanest, meanest, trimmest, fittest older gentleman in America.

He beat a thundering herd of pursuers to run off with the Masters Division title in the famed Peachtree 10K Road Race in Atlanta on the Fourth of July. Well, if you think Atlanta on the Fourth of July was hot and muggy, you should have seen Asbury Park on the 13th of August.

Masters running is an inevitable kind of thing, since none of us ever get any younger, and a diminishing number, once they accept that fact, feel like quitting.

The only thing Larry Olsen ever quit was ice hockey. A hotshot forward at King Philip (Mass.) High School, he chucked his pads and skates and stuck to his shorts and spikes once he got to Providence College.

Two decades later, Larry Olsen is running like a reincarnation of his old...er, young... self. A 31:34.6 clocking in the brutal Asbury weather was an extraordinary performance. Only 16 younger guys beat him back to the finish line. He bolted past Britisher Mike Hurd just past the five-mile post and went on to win this out-and-back tour of four coastal communities by 35 yards. Female masters winner was Barbara Filutze (36:07).

The race served as the 1988 TAC National Masters Championships.

Classic founding father Phil Benson had listed Hurd as his prerace favorite. But there was no thunder left in this Hurd yesterday.

"People shouldn't overlook me," said Olsen later, harboring no grudges.

Olsen was running with the homenation edge, but every other edge seemed to be Hurd's.

Olsen is a working man — at the Front Runner Sports Shop in Millis — who fits his workout day around his working day.

Hurd is a retired Royal Air Force man who fits his running around his

"I'm a full-time runner," he says proudly and it's a testament to the lengths this sport has traveled in recent years that there's anyone at all able to make such a statement.

There is prize money available to leading masters runners — $1,250 to winners, male and female, $750 for seconds, for instance — and there are points at stake in the ICI/USRA nationwide circuit of races, so it's actually possible to run all the way to the bank and not file for bankruptcy before arrival.

"It's (running) hard work... but I enjoy it," says Hurd, a 42-year-old

he ICI/USRA Masters Circuit is pleased to announce its first-ever "ICI/USRA Masters Circuit National Championship" to be held Saturday, January 14 in Naples, Fla. Following weeks of planning and negotiation, ICI and The Registry Hotel of Naples will sponsor the inaugural Championship with hopes of attracting the best masters field ever assembled.

With the battle of individual age groups expected to go down to the wire, the Championship will serve as a "runoff" for any division ties in determining the distribution of the $20,000 Grand Prix style purse. ICI General Manager of Public Affairs Bill Adams announced a $10,000 separate purse for the Naples Championship. Bill Rodgers, among the current leaders on the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit points standings, is the first name athlete to confirm participation, with numerous others expected to commit.

The Naples Championship will be an 8K flat and fast layout that will run through the picturesque Pelican Bay residential community adjacent to the Gulf of Mexico. There will be an "open 8K" but the entire prize purse will be distributed to masters. The weekend will also include an expo and spaghetti dinner on Friday, January 13, and a "Legends Clinic" that evening. Saturday morning will include both the Masters Championship 8K and a separately run open 8K, both followed by a poolside party. Saturday night will feature the first annual "ICI/USRA Masters Circuit National Championship Banquet" where the Grand Prix money and other honors will be distributed.

We are obviously extremely enthused about this pioneer event for the sport and hope you'll join us. In the meantime, I would like to also welcome our newest race to the Circuit the Foundation 30K in Sacramento on November 13. It is also the TAC 30K National Masters Championships, our second such TAC Championships on the Circuit this year. The race will count in the points standings and athlete/entry inquiries should be made to Jerry Coker at 916-636-7692.

Foundation 30K Joins Circuit

Officals of the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit recently announced the addition of the Foundation 30K in Sacramento, Calif., to the Circuit. The Foundation 30K will also serve as the 1988 TAC 30K National Championships and will feature over $8700 in prize money with over $5000 distributed to masters. The event, now in its 23rd year, was formerly the Pepsi 20 Miler since its inception in 1966. Historically, a number of top West Coast masters runners have competed, including Laurie Binder, Sal Vasquez, Jim O'Neil, Paul Reese, Dr. Paul Spangler, and a host of others. Race Director is Skip Seebeck (916/665-1712) and sponsoring Foundation Health Corporation representative is Jerry Coker (916/636-7692).

ICI's Bill Adams was enthusiastic about Sacramento, noting the race "gives us our first West Coast Circuit event, which we wanted to add from the start." He also said, "We welcome other West Coast events desiring consideration for Circuit membership." Runners may earn extra points toward the Grand Priz $20,000 Circuit purse from points earned at the Foundation 30K.

Welch to Run Second Heartland Hustle

Priscilla Welch may not be running in the Olympic Games, but she will be doing the Hustle in Davenport, Iowa. The Heartland Hustle, that is, one of America's fastest growing and most exciting 10K events. In 1987, the Hustle's first year, no fewer than 3700 runners of all ages and abilities flew around the flat, out-and-back course through the streets of downtown Davenport. That made the Heartland Hustle the largest first-time 10K in U.S. history. This year, with the race set for Saturday, October 1, the numbers are expected to soar still higher.

"We're expecting around 5000 runners," commented John Hobbs, the elite-athlete co-ordinator. "But we're going after the older and younger age groups as well."

The masters categories will boast some of the fastest 40 + competitors in the world. Welch holds the masters world record for the marathon with a time of 2:26:51; she also won the prestigious New York City Marathon last fall. Bill Rodgers, another star of this year's masters field, has won both the New York and Boston Marathons four times apiece, and in the Crim 10 Miler on August 27 he set a world masters record of 49:14.

Also ready to hustle in Davenport will be Bob Schlau, Atlaw Belilgne, William Johnston, Steven Lester, Wayne Vaughn, Wes Wessely, Jim O'Neil, Gabriele Andersen and Jane Hutchison.

This year the Heartland Hustle has also joined the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit, a fourteen race series featuring the world's premier masters runners and culminating in the ICI/USRA National Championships in Naples, Florida on January 14.

Patricia Richardson (41, Clark Lake, Mich.) was the top female masters runner in the 8K at 37:42.

Other events on the schedule included a 5K walk and a quarter-mile Teddy Bear Trot for ages 4-10. The four races drew nearly 6500 entrants, with 3642 in the 10 mile and 1082 in the 8K.

Rodgers, admittedly pointing for this fall's New York City Marathon, where he also hopes to set an American masters record, said he ran two 20-milers in the weeks before the Crim race.

from Carterton, just outside Oxford. And, of course, somebody's got to do it.

The "marketing" of America's most "marketable" vet runners — Bill Rodgers and Frank Shorter, both 40 this year — will add even greater stakes to the general pot.

It's the even older guys who are the truest masters.

Ed Benham and Norm Green, for instance.

The 81-year-old Benham, a retired jockey from Ocean City, Md., cantered these 49 panels yesterday in a brisk 46:35.7.

At age 56, Wayne, Pa., marvel Green routinely beats people half his age.

Running at a 5:36 mile clip, Green ran the Classic route in 34:43.6. Just in front of him was a 25-year-old. Just in back was a 26-year-old. A minute and 40 seconds behind him was noted freelance writer Hal Higdon, Green's "closest" 55-59 divisional competitor.

my relationship with him is strong, and I will call on his past experience to counsel me.

My immediate goal is to identify several sites that would be interested in serving on a rotational basis for future indoor national meets. Baton Rouge's LSU is an excellent example of the benefits of this rotation for the participant; the masters program benefits because of the inherent stability, and the sponsoring club and community should be able to benefit both in gaining host experience, as well as fiscally.

Other sites I would like to see come forward are Syracuse, Princeton, and the University of Wisconsin at Madison; of course, there are other sites that would be suitable, and I have done my best to contact them. This I did by reviewing past issues of T&F News to identify where previous NCAA and Big 8 championships were held. I have also contacted numerous clubs which are geographically close to major indoor facilities. Finally, there are sites that I just don't know about. It's up to you to contact me and tell me about them.

I promise that this responsibility given to me will be carried with the attention and concern it deserves. There are too many masters competitors who sacrifice a great deal of time, money and heartache to attend a national indoor meet. I will do my best to make sure you leave each national indoor championships with the knowledge that it was worth your personal sacrifice.

FOREIGN PARTICIPANTS

Many U.S.A. masters athletes are questioning the propriety of inviting all foreign athletes to participate in the USA/TAC National Masters Championships when there is no reciprocal arrangement with the European organizers.

We realize that to open the doors to foreigners creates problems in a big meet such as the European Championships. Duplicate medals must be struck and the presence of foreigners creates problems when one bumps a European athlete in a final.

Nevertheless, it is my belief that the benefits of allowing foreigners to enter far outweighs the problems they create.

Any master/veteran athlete who has attended a World Championship event such as in Melbourne and Rome has made foreign friendships which usually last much longer than the athletic accomplishments on the field. Fitness and athletic accomplishment are only part of the benefits to be reaped from masters participation in athletics. We, as mature adults, should recognize these incidental, but important, benefits. By now we should accept the fact that it is the participation which is most important. The records and medals are incidental.

The presence of foreign entrants always adds an extra element to any track meeting and the fellowship which follows creates lasting friendships.

Regions such as Europe should reexamine their provincial and insular policy and open their doors to their foreign counterparts.

It is my intention to put this on the WAVA Agenda when the Council meets in August of 1989.

REMEMBERING HARRY KOPPEL

Harry Koppel was a very special kind of guy....a tough exterior and a hard competitor, but a treasured friend with a marshmallow heart. His untimely passing on August 13 will sadden all who knew the 'little warrior' as a competitor in our sport of track and field.

Those that knew him were in awe of his courage in overcoming so many adversities along the path of life. As a result of working around chemicals, he came up with cancer; yet after radiation and cobalt treaments he won that battle, which turned him on to getting active in sports - first it was swimming, where his tenacity and hard work brought him championships and national records very quickly. However, the lure of track and field was to captivate him because, as he put it, "I enjoy running because the people are outgoing and friendly."

The next crisis to befall Harry was a serious sea snake bite that nearly took his life during a swim outing in Hawaii. He started running to build up his leg, and the record shows that he became one of the finest age group sprinters in the history of masters track and field! Thumbing through Pete Mundle's Masters Age Record Book you will find that Harry Koppel verily dominates the listings for 100 and 200 world marks.

Harry unselfishly gave time and advice to his fellow competitors and any beginner that wished help. Yet when one went to the line for a race it was war and you had to be ready, for he was not one to allow a victory to come cheaply! My hat is off to a true and worthy champion...Harry, you will be missed. May the love and deep concern of the track fraternity give Julie, Harry's loving wife, and the Koppel family strength at this time.

REMEMBERING JON YOUNG

Masters track and field has provided me with a lot of memorable moments. However, the most rewarding has not been in my winning gold medals in national or world championships, but in meeting the good people that one encounters in the masters program.

One such person was Jon Young, one of the finest sprinters of his time, who recently passed away of lung cancer at the young age of 40. Jon captained his university's track team and was an alternate on the U.S. 4x100 relay team in the 1972 Olympics.

I met Jon last year in the twilight of his life, but he always made me feel his life was at high noon. His body was wracked with pain, and despair should have been his constant companion, but Jon talked about the future with his wife, children and mother.

After his death, I realized he was just trying to live life the best way he knew how. Jon never got his chance to become a masters athlete, but he was a gold medalist in the way he lived and the people he inspired.

MASTERS SCENE

NATIONAL

- The 8K National Masters Championships, scheduled for Phoenix on December 3, has been cancelled because it lost its financial sponsor.
- Frank Little would like to personally thank Bruce Springbett for the use of his shoe. Yes, shoe (not shoes). The Nationals had a rough start for Little, who discovered after one heat of the 100 that his new shoes, particularly his right one, were causing him a good deal of pain. He had little hope for finding a replacement since his feet are very small. He heard that Springbett had the same size feet and dared to ask if he could borrow his right shoe. "Most people would've said no, these are my competition shoes. But Bruce loaned me his right shoe and we spent the whole rest of the Nationals running a race, taking off the shoe, running a race." Since Little is in the M45s and Springbett is in the M50s, and their race events were both 100 and 200 meters. Little would run a race, give the shoe to Springbett, then Springbett would do the same for Little. The result? Four gold medals - two each in the 100 and 200.
- Dennis Tancredi of Staten Island, NY, was the gold medalist (64.20) in the M45 400H in the Nationals in Orlando. Harold Morioka, who finished first, is a citizen of Canada.
- Scott Thornsley has been named the new TAC National Masters Indoor Meet Coordinator by Jerry Donley, Chairman of the National Masters T&F Committee. Thornsley replaces Ron Salvio.
- Lost and Found. A camera was found at the Nationals in Orlando. If it's yours, please call Nick Gailey at 904/377-0134.

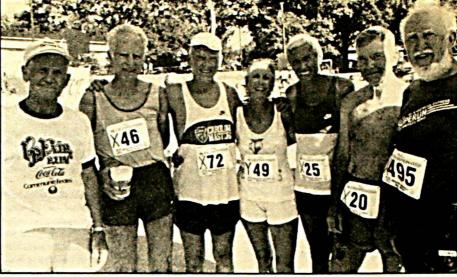

EAST

- Steve Cowley of Canada took the men's masters gold and $175 in the Buffalo Subaru Chase 4 Mile, in Buffalo, July 16, with a 20:12. Barbara Filutze of Pennsylvania collected a like amount for her W40+ win in 22:57. Lawrence Yapell (24:52) and Wendi Hangar (28:17) were 50-59 winners, while Anthony Napoli (33:00) and Loretta Shehan (34:16) took the 60+
- The Running Laceys, James Sr., 54, and Georgette, 51, of Library in eastern Pennsylvania, ran, from late March to early August, everything from a three mile to a marathon together. In addition, Georgette, who was undefeated in her age group during that period, also picked up five firsts from the 100 through the 1500 in the West Penn meet in May, while James got a first in the 5000.
- The Achilles Track Club, the NYC-based organization for disabled athletes, is sponsoring its first-ever race, the Achilles Handicap 10K, on December 4 in Central Park. So that everyone will have a chance to win, runners' take-off times will be handicapped by sex, age, and (where applicable) disability category.
 - The new dates for the entry lottery into the

- Nike Cherry Blossom 10 Mile, Washington, DC, April 2, as announced by race officials, will be from December 1 through December 31, two weeks sooner than previously, to allow earlier mailing of race instructions. Send legal-size SASE with your birthdate and social security number noted on the lower left hand of the SASE to Nike Cherry Blossom, P.O. Box 4594, Silver Spring, MD 20904. Requests received before December 1 or after the 31st will be rejected. Last year about 10,000 runners applied for the 5000 slots.
- I. King Jordan, 44, who last March was thrust into the presidency of Gallaudet University (the world's only accredited liberal arts university for the deaf and hearing-impaired) when students rejected the appointment of a "hearing" president, is an avid runner who has completed scores of races including two dozen marathons (best time 3:02). A navyman when he lost his hearing in a motorcycling accident in the mid-60s, Jordan, who holds a Ph.D. in psychology from the U. of Tennessee, says he does some of his best thinking while on his daily 6-to-8 mile runs.
- Zofia Turosz, 50, in 1:30:03 was first W40 + and 10th woman (368 w/finishers) in the NYRRC's Hispanic Half-Marathon, Central Park, NYC, August 21. First M40 + Hector Vargas, 41, finished 19th (1:15:03) of 1273 m/finishers
- Art Hall, 41, got the job done in 20:46 to place third overall of 456 m/finishers in the NYRRC's Back To Work 4 Mile, Central Park, NYC, August 28. Second master Gabriel Bernal, 49, won the M45 division easily (22:28). John McManus, 65, was not retiring with a two-minute win (27:23) in his division. Sher Pratt, 41, made the top ten of 276 w/finishers with a 25:47
- Masters winners in the August 20 Sea Isle
 City, N.J., Beach Patrol Half-Marathon were
 Fred Deorkk (1:15:22) and Carole Lelli
 (1:27:30). Eight-hundred participated in the race.

- Dixon Hemphill, 63, who took up masters distance running in the '70s with the Potomac Valley Seniors and went on to be ranked nationally in his age group in the early '80s, has turned to triathloning, earning honors on the Triathlon Federation's All-American team in '87. Hemphill, captain of his high school and college track teams when he competed in the pole vault (12-0 in the bamboo pole days), discus, and high jump, operates his own running shop in the D.C. area.
- Bill Fitch (43, 27:18) of Boone, NC, and Anne Mansfield (40, 31:34) of Winston-Salem were top masters in the Dilworth Jubilee 8K (RRCA state championships), Charlotte, NC, August 13. Winning men's and women's masters teams were from the Twin City TC of Winston-Salem. The top three 40 + teams won Wendy's 10K, thought defunct from lack of sponsorship, has been revived by a group of local sponsors and is set for October 22, in Bowling Green, KY, as Wendy's Bowling Green Classic.

MID AMERICA

- Chuck Olsen, M60, of Novis, MN, who had a 15-8 LJ, a 30-2 (5kg) shot put, and a 7.05 50m in the Early Morning "R" meet in July, will be out of action for awhile following cardiovascular surgery for the second time.
- Colorado's Gail LaDage Scott suffered a stress fracture which kept her from finishing the Olympic Trials Marathon. She is now recovered and recently finished sixth female overall in two European races.

Mark Covert, M35, of Valencia, CA, celebrated the longest consecutive running streak in the U.S. on July 23, when he ran on his 7035th day (20 straight years) in a fun run of 7035m at a park in Valencia. The run and picnic (hosted by the Santa Clarita TC) was attended by many of Covert's ex-running mates, former pupils, and current proteges. Originally a Burbank resident, Covert, a state junior college and Division II champion, was a pioneer of the running Renaissance in the Los Angeles area two decades ago, and qualified for the 1972 Olympic Trials in the marathon. Covert maintained his string during bouts with the flu and even when he had a broken foot. His 20th-year anniversary fun run brought out Laszlo Tabori, one of the first milers to break 4:00 and long-time mentor-coach of the San Fernando Valley TC, who ran the race, his first in 26 years. When asked, "Why now?" Tabori's comment was, "For Mark, I will do this. This is special."

 The listed M55-59 hammer AR is 175-0 by Bob Backus in 1981. Last June, Cliff Blair, M55, threw the 12-lb. hammer 193-11, which, if recognized, will erase Backus' record because the 12-lb. hammer is the accepted weight for M50-59. However, Backus' mark was made with the 16-lb, implement in a meet at Dartmouth, NH, in 1981. In August 1981, Backus threw the 6kg (13.2 lbs.) 197-8, but he has never thrown the 12-lb. So purists might say that Backus owns the American record for the 16-lb. and the 6kg, but Blair has the 12-lb. record. Backus presently lives in French Camp, CA, in the Stockton area, and is concentrating on raising his strength level, after a quadruple by-pass in October 1986, through power lifting. Backus hopes to exceed the strength he had before his operation. Thus far, he has managed a 350-lb, full squat and a 475-lb, deadlift with a body weight of 245. When he can do "something reasonably qualitative," his plan is to first break the age-62 56-lb. weight mark, following Continued on page 26

Bill Walmroth, M60, had the best effort of 14.8/48-61/2.

When it started to rain the morning of the second day, the meet organizers quickly switched the triple jump and pole vault to the adjoining indoor track facility.

Much credit must be given to the Canadian Masters who, on short notice, agreed to combine their National Championships with the North American Championships, thus giving the latter a great boost. The meet is to be held every two years, next in 1990. It will be moved about North and Central America and will, we hope, reach the stature of the European Regional Championships. Perhaps the next meeting can be held in the Southeast, possibly Puerto Rico. Anyone wishing to bid for this event should contact David Pain, the North American Delegate.

· Piergiorgio Andreotti, 48, of Italy led all walkers in the Mitty Pearson 10K Walk with a 51:03 in Monterey, CA, August 20, while Gary West, 47, was second overall in the 5K (27:13).

• Tony Perona of California, holder of several age-77-and-up walk records joined the M80 ranks in May.

 Viisha Sedlak, double gold medalist in the walks in Melbourne, turned 40 in September and hopes to set a U.S. W40 15K walk record in the Grand Prix, Riverside, CA, October 9, the day after her RW clinic on the East L.A. College track at 8:30 a.m. For clinic info, contact Elaine Ward, 818/577-2264.

. Hy Booth of San Mateo, CA, broke the M70-74 U.S. record for the 1kg discus of 139-1 with a 141-6 at Los Gatos, CA, August 11. The previous record belonged to Ross Carter of Eugene, OR.

The Sacramento-area-based River City TC won the California State Masters Team Championships held in Sacramento this year, August 20, with 444 points. The West Valley TC, another Northern California club, was second with 212. The San Francisco TC took the third slot with 170.

 Masters winners in the America's Finest City Home Federal Half-Marathon, San Diego, August 21, were Ben Wilson (M40, 1:14:01) and Harolene Walters (W40, 1:30:13). The race over the slightly hilly course was very competitive with the top three W40s coming in within a minute of each other. Mary Leivers was second to Walters in 1:30:27, followed-by Donna Archer in 1:30:56. Overall winners were Carlos Retiz (26, 1:03:41) and Sylvia Mosqueda (22, 1:11:29).

. Kay Willoughby, 52, from Mill Valley, CA, used her 22-minute head start in holding off Peggy Smythe, 38, for a seven second victory in the 7.1 Mile Dipsea Race, Mill Valley, June 12. Smythe began with an 11-minute head start and hattled the entire distance with Patricia English. who finished a close third. Smythe set an alltime course record for women, but Willoughby won the first Dipsea "Running Bear," a sculpture commissioned to serve as the winner's trophy henceforward.

. The 83 finishers in the M40-44 division of the Capital City Marathon made up over 24% of the total who ran the race in Olympia, WA, July 24. Sonny Conder, M40, Portland, OR, took the M40 + contest in 2:38:32, with Steven Campagna, M40, Tacoma, second in 2:39:46. Levi Query, W40, Portland, OR, was first W40 + in 3:23:38.

. Ulrike Criminale, 52, of Seattle was killed in a mountain climbing accident on July 31 when she fell to a sudden and tragic death after being struck on the head by a falling boulder. Criminale, whose love for the outdoors was nurtured during her childhood in her native West Germany's Black Forest, migrated to the U.S. with her husband in 1962. After six years in New Jersey, they moved to Seattle, where she took up hiking, climbing, and, in 1976, running. Admittedly, a "slow poke," she took up longdistance running, particularly high-altitude ultras because they enabled her to relax and enjoy the surroundings. In 1984 and 1985, she set age-48 and age-49 50K records. But, she will be remembered for more than that. As one of her acquaintances noted, "Records and times, however, don't capture the quality of this marvelous person."

. E.J. Wippich, who had just turned 40, collapsed suddently during the javelin competition in the British Veterans Athletic Federation Championships, South Wales, July 23-24. Despite immediate attention from the St. John's Ambulance Brigade and a qualified doctor, he died on the site. Reportedly a heavy smoker,

Kansas governor, Mike Hayden, presents Jim Hershberger with the overall winner's trophy for winning the Most Versatile Athlete competition held in June in Wichita. Established by Hershberger six years ago, the competition is an 11-hour challenge of ten events, in which entrants vie for $67,000 prize money. This year, Hershberger, 56, captured the $22,000 first prize with firsts in Kayaking and Wippich had taken up the sport about four years ago and had won the silver medal in this year's championships on his first throw.

. Two M45s, Peter Connolly (1:12:00) and Bob Town (1:17:50) were 1-2 masters in the QVAC Half-Marathon Championships, Brisbane, July 3. First veteran woman (35+) was Robyn Meadows (1:23:30).

· Peter Skone, 42, repeated his '86 win by running out front all the way in the Victorian Veterans Marathon Championships in Carlton, Victoria, July 16, to finish in 2:38:36. Gordon McKeown won the M60 race handily in 3:13:53. Jo McGarity, W40, was the veteran female leader in 3:18:33.

 Israel has resigned from WAVA, feeling that it was unsupported by WAVA's executive committee. Barry Shaw, Chairman of the Israel Veterans, alleges that at Malmo, Sweden in 1986, Israel was prevented from placing an application to be accepted into Europe. "The WAVA Constitution states that regional associations must accept applications from an outside veterans organization to join a region," Shaw said. "This clause was not respected because of rushed voting at Malmo to change the membership clause of the European Veterans AA Con-

 New Zealand's Dick Quax, once holder of the world 5000 record, is now 40 and reportedly ran a 29:42 10K this year.

· Norway defeated Sweden in a throwing (shot put, discus, hammer, javelin) competition held in Oslo, June 11-12, by a score of 36,874 to 25,645. Throwers' marks were age-handicapped so that the best marks (by younger athletes) did not necessarily score the most points. In the shot put, Norway's Bjorn Bang-Andersen, M50, did have the best distance (16.38/53-9) to score the most points (1152). In the hammer, the best mark of 50,12/164-5 by Sweden's Bo Berglund, M60, also earned the highest score (1300). Rolf Strandli, M60, Sweden, outpointed all discus throwers with a 48 42/158-10 for an 1129 score, while the best mark of 50.18/164-7 by Norway's Bjorn Heggeland, M50, was good for a third place 1055. In the javelin, Egil Danielsen, M55. Norway, threw 51.38/168-7 for a score of 1203 while countryman Harald Lorentzen with the day's best of 61.56/202-0 scored 980 for second place.

. Norway's Danielsen, M55, claimed a world record of 165-10 with the new javelin in the Norwegian Championships, Trondheim, July 29-31. Kirsten Hveem, W60, was just short of her world records in the hurdles and high jump with marks of 15.6 and 1.20/3-111/4. Other standouts were Ase Nyland, W55, with a 2:47.9 800, and Arne Lothe, M50, with a 55.36/181-7 hammer throw.

Can-am Challenge XII

Highland Forest, Fabius, N.T. Sunday, November 6, 1988

You are cordially invited to represent your country in the twelfth running of the Canada vs USA Masters International Cross-Country Match to be held on Sunday, November 6, 1988 at Highland Forest Park in Fabius. N.Y. The Can-Am Challenge is an International event of great importance as well as unique character. Men (aged 40 and over), and women (aged 35 and over) are encouraged to join us in this physically demanding and socially stimulating event. It should be noted that, while this event will attract some of the finest Masters runners on both sides of the border, this is not simply an Elite runner's race. Due to unique scoring characteristics of the Can-Am Challenge, everyone running is important to the final outcome.

The race will be conducted at Highland Forest Park over a 10 K course of forest trails, rolling hills, muddy patches, jumps, and other obstacles. This is real Cross-country, not your typical American "rolling golf course" variety. Spikes are recommended. The Can-Am is an event conducted by runners for runners

We are already into negotiations for 1989 Circuit events and in that regard I will be joining Bill Adams in London in mid-October to pursue our first "International" Circuit event. With ICI's home base in London, it is only natural for us to start with our British friends. In fact, we are contemplating a "USA-British World Class Cup" match race between our best and theirs within the London Circuit race.

The "ICI Legends Mile" continues to receive accolades from throughout the world as we are researching a separate "Masters Mile" circuit in 8-10 cities. In both areas, we welcome input from athletes and inquiries from race directors who wish to be a part of the Circuit.

We also want to extend a warm welcome this month from the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit and Dean Reinke & Associates to Jim O'Brien and Stan Singer, recent additions to out staff. They will comprise our New York office with Jim, a London native and experienced running and track and field writer, coordinating circuit PR duties, while Stan, a former salesman for Runner's World magazine will coordinate our sponsorship sales area. And one final note. Masters Running '88, the official magazine of the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit, is out and available. The 4-color, 96-page detailed annual covering masters running, can be obtained free of charge by sending $1 for postage to Masters Running '88, 33A Martine Ct., Newark, DE 19711. We'll see you on the roads!□

Winners in the July 10 Utica Boilermaker 15K were Barbara Filutze (57:05) and Bob Schlau (48:32). Filutze also took the National Masters women's title at the August 13 Asbury (N.J.) Park 10K in 36:07 Photo from Dean Reinke while Schlau was third in 31:59.

ON TAP FOR OCTOBER TRACK & FIELD

Except for the Club West Masters Meet in Santa Barbara on the 1st, this month offers slim pickin's. The strongmen have weight pentathlons in NYC on the 8th, and Lawrence, Kansas on the 2nd. Organization men and women will convene in San Francisco on the 22nd for the World Corporate Games. Multiday senior (50+) sports festivals start on the 22nd in St. George, Utah, and on the 25th in Florida.

There's plenty of action overseas: the South American Veterans Championships, Peru, 8th-9th; the International Veterans Meet, Hong Kong, 15th-16th; the Central Australian Veterans Games, Alice Springs, 15th-25th; and the re-scheduled Oceania Veterans Championships, New Caledonia, 29th-November 2nd.

LONG DISTANCE RUNNING

LSD will be prevalent in Duluth, Minn., on the 22nd, when long slow distance advocates congregate for the National Masters 100K Championships. While tracksters get ready to hibernate, distance runners will be coming alive, starting on the 1st in the Heartland Hustle 10K, an ICI/USRA Masters Circuit race, in Davenport, Iowa; the St. George Marathon in Utah; the five-event Ultimate Runner in Jackson, Mich.; and the Myriad Gardens 10K in Oklahoma City.

The Twin Cities Marathon offers substantial masters cash prizes in Minnneapolis on the 2nd.

The following weekend offers the Capital Trail 10 Mile, another ICI/USRA Masters event, in Raleigh, N.C., on the 8th. Masters men and women milers will have separate races in the Mercedes Mile on 5th Avenue on the 15th.

On the 16th, the Stamford Marathon should draw a host of masters runners to Connecticut for that ICI/USRA race.

Freihofer's Run For Women 10K in Syracuse, N.Y., is set for the 23rd.

The final weekend finds the Tulsa 15K on the 29th, and the Old Style (formerly Chicago) Marathon on the 30th.

The 21st World Veterans (IGAL) 5K/10K/Marathon championships are scheduled for the 7th-10th in Korea.

RACEWALKING

The National Masters 30K Championships return to last year's site, East Meadow, N.Y., on the 16th.

Some readers provide additional support to the National Masters News and to the Masters program by sending contributions of $25, $50 or $100 a year. If you are able, we urge you to join them. All contributors will receive a free copy of the new Masters Age Record book and will be listed in the paper as a National Masters News sustainer.

* NATIONAL MASTERS NEWS

The National Masters News is the official world and U.S. publication for Masters track & field, long distance running and race walking.

Masters competition is sponsored worldwide by the World Association of Veteran Athletes and in the USA by The Athletics Congress. The National Masters News gives you information that's available nowhere else: schedule information, meet and race results, training advice, race and meet stories, profiles, photos and articles by the top Masters writers in the nation. It's the best - if not the only - source of world, national, regional and local Masters information.

The National Masters News is only $18.75 a year for 12 information-packed issues. Or you can take advantage of our special two-year rate of $35 - a 25% savings off the single-copy price. A 3-year subscription saves 29%.
